

provisions of Article 47 of the Radio Regulations were infringed and that hence the said E.A.R.C. decisions are illegal ; and also that the Plenipotentiary Conference (1952), in adopting a resolution according to which those illegal E.A.R.C. decisions are to be considered as replacing the provisions of the Radio Regulations, thereby infringed the provisions of Article 13 of the Telecommunication Convention, relative to the binding character of the Regulations ;

the Ukrainian Soviet Socialist Republic in these circumstances leaves open the question of accepting the provisions of the Telecommunication Convention relative to the International Frequency Registration Board, as also the question of accepting the Radio Regulations.

XXV

For the Roumanian People's Republic :

On signing the present Convention on behalf of the Roumanian People's Republic, the Delegation of the Roumanian People's Republic states the following :

1. (1) The Buenos Aires Plenipotentiary Conference has illegally decided to give the right to sign the Telecommunication Convention to the so-called Delegation of China, sent by the Kuomintang.

The only legitimate representatives of China entitled to sign the Telecommunication Convention are the representatives designated by the Central People's Government of the Chinese People's Republic.

(2) The Government of the German Democratic Republic has legally acceded to the Atlantic City Telecommunication Convention, 1947, and is thus a party to the 1947 Telecommunication Convention and enjoys a full Membership of the Union.

The Bonn authorities do not represent Germany as a whole and consequently the decision of the Conference which has given the right of signing the Convention to its representatives is illegal.

(3) The right to sign the Buenos Aires Telecommunication Convention attributed to the representatives of Bao-Dai Viet-Nam
