

Meanwhile, during this period of forty-eight hours we can get on with our consideration of and decision on the United States draft resolution and other draft resolutions before the General Assembly which deal with this grave and dangerous situation which confronts us, both in relation to its immediate as well as its wider and perhaps even more far-reaching aspects.