

are not taking place as reported throughout the world. But we cannot be content with a silence that may imply damaging admissions. It is for the Government of Hungary to move all of us from suspicion to satisfaction, from a sense of distress to a knowledge that puts conscience to rest.

---

S/C