

Pursuant to Standing Order 39(4), the following two Questions were made Orders of the House for Returns:

No. 1,421—Mr. Badanai

1. May a newly-arrived immigrant, with a trade, join a Canadian trade union?
2. Must he have experience in his work in Canada before he is eligible to become a member of a union?
3. What action does the Department of Manpower and Immigration take to help the immigrant find employment in his trade?

No. 1,457—Mr. Coates

1. What is the total expenditure to date of the Royal Commission on Bilingualism and Biculturalism and on what date will the Commission complete its work and what is the estimated final cost of the Commission?
2. What has been the total in salary and expenses paid to the members of the Commission since its inception to date?
3. How many individuals have been employed by the Commission, and of that number, what are the names, addresses and qualifications of those who have received in excess of $10,000 in salary and expenses and in each instance, what was the specific amount?
4. Have any public relations or consultant firms been employed by the Commission and, if so, what are the names of the firms, what were the specific duties of each and how much has each received from the Commission for services rendered?

Mr. Macdonald, a Member of the Queen's Privy Council, laid before the House,—Returns to the foregoing Orders.

[At 5.00 o'clock p.m., Private Members' Business was called pursuant to Standing Order 15(4)]

(Notices of Motions)

Mr. Winch, seconded by Mr. Knowles (Winnipeg North Centre), moved,—That, in the opinion of this House, the following matters should be referred to a Standing Committee, designated by the Prime Minister, with authority to call for persons and papers and report its deliberations with recommendations (a) the use of animals for medical research purposes, their care and utilization, and procedures for government licensing and inspection of, and control over, all premises using animals for laboratory research or medical training (b) the treatment of animals as pets and, as far as federal jurisdiction permits, recommendations regarding legislation providing penalties for those abusing animals, and any persons making a business of raising or catching animals for sale to research individuals or centres and not keeping same in a humane manner (c) the most humane method of trapping fur-bearing animals (d) consideration of the entire Canadian picture relative to the maintenance of fish, bird and animal wildlife and the regulations required for conservation.—(Notice of Motion No. 29).

And debate arising thereon;