

Bennett, Right Hon. R. B.—*Con.
Budget—Con.

ing of tariffs in 1930 and safeguarding of our industrial interests, 2506; undertakings given by industrial concerns that increased tariffs would not mean increased prices to consumer; communications from boot and shoe manufacturers and farm implement firms, 2507; reduction in prices of farm implements as compared with prices in United States; letter from gasoline companies; emergency nature of tariff of 1930; reasons for increase in unemployment; negotiation in 1932 of empire trade agreements, 2508; statement showing trade of Canada with empire countries, 2509; extension of free entry to British goods coming into Canada; trade treaty with France, 2510; extension of intermediate tariff to Germany and Austria; trade treaties with Poland and Brazil; market in France for Canadian wheat; trade relations with Japan, 2511; problem connected with exemption of $100 on goods coming from United States, 2512; financial position of country on coming into office of late government; borrowing of $100,000,000 in New York market at four per cent, 2512; conversion of $650,000,000 worth of securities and sale of treasury bills; reduction of interest charge by approximately $16,000,000; significance of part played by Bank of Canada in enabling us to arrive at present financial position; finding a market for short time treasury bills, 2513; drive made by government to secure lower rates of interest; resolution adopted at 1932 empire trade conference on interest rates; amendment of Dominion Notes Act to provide for change in silver and gold coverage; revaluation of gold under Bank of Canada Act, 2514; comparison of Australian and Canadian quotations for domestic loans in world markets; provision for lower interest on farm loans and debt adjustment; loans to provinces to guard against default; Alberta financial situation, 2515; creation of national councils and loan councils; proposal to amend British North America Act to clothe provincial legislatures with power over indirect taxation; lack of finality as to proposals affecting a great body of the

Bennett, Right Hon. R. B.—*Con.
Budget—Con.

people; analysis of additions to the national debt, 2516; powers of tariff board and judgment in matter of automobile reference, 2517; effort to secure lower freight rates; discrimination against Canadian consumers with respect to metals produced in our own country; recommendation of tariff board that Canadian subsidiaries of foreign automobile corporations should publish balance sheets annually, 2518; effect on manufacturers of reduction in tariff on agricultural implements from 12½ per cent to 7½ per cent; change in tariff with reference to materials for advertising; loss in revenue through elimination of tax on advertising; effect on national consciousness of United States publications, 2519; countervailing duties on eggs, potatoes and cut flowers; competition from Chinese eggs, 2520; statement made by Minister of Finance with reference to mining industry; equality of treatment in matter of taxation for all industries in the country; income tax imposed against profits from mines; provincial action against speculation in mining stocks, 2521; raising the revenue necessary for carrying on government by economies and taxation; cost of civil service from 1925 to 1935; appointment as assistant to chief electoral officer of son of president of Liberal Association of Ottawa; appointment of Brigadier General Caldwell as master general of the ordnance; additions to service since October 23, 1935, and displacement of former employees; continuation of five per cent salary deduction this year, 2522; effect of eight per cent sales tax; sugar tax; provision for deficit with respect to wheat and oats extending over a period of five or six years; guarantees given to the banks against ultimate losses, 2523; loans to the provinces; substitution of seven directors for three trustees on national railways; net loss of $115,000,000 last year on Canadian National Railways, 2524; effect of retroactive aspect of provincial corporation taxation; solving the railway problem, 2525

Buffalo abattoir at Wainwright, 2782
Bureau for translations bill, 339