

Proceedings on Adjournment Motion

to our economic development. Since most of this amount will be paid in the form of subsidies, it is in my opinion better than a loan. In addition, the transfer payments to the provinces will amount to over $1 billion. Moreover, this year, the federal government has granted $150 million to the province under a special development loan program, so as to accelerate the implementation of job-creating projects.

I could keep on with this enumeration but I think that I have demonstrated that the government has granted priority to the economic development and to the amounts required by this thorny problem and that it is neither necessary nor desirable to add new organizations to those already existing.

Motion agreed to and the House adjourned at 10.17 p.m.
