

2. If so, what conclusions have been reached?

3. If no conclusions have yet been reached, are such discussions continuing and will a report on such discussions be made to the House of Commons at an early date?

No. 511—Mr. Brand—October 19

1. How many regional and senior liaison officers are employed by the Citizenship Branch of the Department of the Secretary of State?

2. Where are they located?

3. What are their total salaries?

4. To whom do they report their activities?

5. Are such reports available?

No. 512—Mr. Mongrain—October 19—

1. Did the federal government have preliminary discussions with the Government of the Province of Quebec or the management of Hydro Quebec concerning the thermonuclear plant being constructed at Gentilly, a section of the new Town of Bécancour, Quebec?

2. If so, does the federal government contribute financially or otherwise to the project?

3. What is the exact nature and cost of this contribution?

4. What organization will be responsible for the distribution of that power and for the determination of the cost?

5. Will some power be exported to the United States?

6. What is the approximate date on which this plant will be effectively put into operation?

7. Will the federal government have any decision in the management or future policy-making of the plant?