

Captain St.Clair - 2 - the picture of young men and women leaving Victoria in hundreds.

You speak of the weather as being enchanting. I know just what that means for no place I have ever been can rival Victoria in the matter of climate.
The autumn here has been unusually fine.

Most cordially reciprocating your good wishes, I am,

Yours faithfully,