

- La Barre, de, becomes Gov. in 1682, i. 69 ; takes over La Salle's fort, 70 ; makes a humiliating peace with the Iroquois, 72 ; is recalled, 73.
- Lachine, Massacre of, by the Iroquois in 1689, i. 81.
- Lafontaine, Sir L. H., forms his first Cabinet, ii. 185 ; resigns, 191 ; forms his second Cabinet, 207.
- Lansdowne, Marquis of, becomes Gov.-Gen. in 1883, ii. 433 ; his judicious administration, 489.
- Langevin, Sir Hector, becomes a Cabinet Minister in 1867, ii. 295 ; denounced by Le Canadien, 501 ; forced to resign, 504.
- Laval, Bishop, appointed in 1658, i. 38 ; quarrels with Argenson, i. 40 ; quarrels with Avaugour, 44 ; quarrels with Mezy, 48 ; quarrels with Frontenac, 63 ; resigns in 1685, 73 ; dies at Quebec in 1708, note, 74.
- La Salle explores the lakes, i. 64 ; sends Father Hennepin to explore the Mississippi, 65 ; descends the river to Gulf of Mexico, his tragical fate, 66.
- Latour besieged in Acadia, i. 31 ; assisted by New Englanders, and receives grants of land from Cromwell, 32.
- Lauson, de, becomes Gov. in 1651, i. 33 ; pressed by the Iroquois, 34 ; their insolence, 36.
- Laurier, Wilfred, enters Parliament in 1874 and seconds address, ii. 387 ; enters the Cabinet, 396 ; joins in the Riel cry, 478 ; is chosen Opposition leader, 488.
- Le Loutra, the Abbe, urges the Micmac Indians to attack Annapolis, i. 116 ; controls the Acadians, 123 ; his character, 124 ; is made a prisoner and sent to England, 142.
- Le Moyne, Father, his mission to the Onondagas, i. 33.
- Letellier, de St. Just, case of, ii. 401 ; is dismissed, 409.
- Levis, Marquis de, arrives in Canada in 1756, i. 154 ; present at the capture of Fort William Henry, 158 ; besieges the British in Quebec, 202 ; retreats to Montreal, 203.
- Liberal Conservative Party, rise of, ii. 233.
- Lorne, Marquis of, becomes Gov.-Gen. in 1878, ii. 407 ; grand reception at Halifax, 408 ; visits the North-West, 418 ; end of his term, 430-2.
- Louis XIV., his misfortunes, disasters and death, i. 105.
- Lount, Samuel, elected to U. C. Assembly ii. 17 ; plots rebellion with Mackenzie, 118 ; commands attack on Toronto, 119 ; his flight and capture, 135 ; his execution, 147.
- Loudon, Lord, his fruitless military operations, i. 161.
- Louisburg captured by Pepperell, i. 117 ; restored to France, 121 ; surrenders to Amherst, 163.
- Lower Canada becomes a separate province in 1791, i. 271.
- Loyalists, United Empire, moves into Canada, i. 265-6.
- Lundy's Lane, Battle of, Americans defeated, i. 388.
- Macdonald, Sir John A., elected to Parliament for Kingston, ii. 193 ; is Receiver General, 204 ; is Attorney General, 233 ; secularises Clergy Reserves, 234 ; becomes Conservative leader, 243 ; becomes Premier, 246 ; resigns, 251 ; Attorney General again, 253 and 273 ; Premier of the first Dominion Cabinet, 295 ; his Riel two-faced policy, 371 ; Pacific Railway Scandal, 385 ; his wise Opposition, 392 ; his National Policy, 400 ; his political convalescence, 397 ; Premier again, 404 ; courts Irish support, 426 ; his negligence touching Riel, 459 ; his illness, 482 ; he wins his last battle, 501 ; his death and character, 505.
- Macdonald, John Sandfield, elected for Cornwall, ii. 206 ; becomes speaker, 225 ; is Premier in 1862, 265 ; resigns, 272 ; becomes the first Premier of Ontario, 318 ; his defeat and death, 370.
- Macdonald, Colonel, is killed with Brock and buried in the same grave, i. 342.
- Macdougall, William, enters the Cabinet, ii. 277 ; appointed Lieut.-Gov. of the North-West, 331 ; refused entrance by Riel, 353.
- MacNab, Sir Allan, succours Head at Toronto, ii. 131 ; elected speaker, 193 ; becomes Premier, 233 ; resigns, 243 ; his death, 267.
- Mackenzie, William Lyon, his biography, i. 457 ; publishes Colonial Advocate, 458 ; his printing office wrecked, 461 ; is expelled from the Assembly, ii.