

bers; for the government of the Officers and Members thereof; for collecting and appointing the time of payment of the annual contributions of the Ordinary Members to the funds thereof; for regulating the times and places, and mode of summoning of the ordinary and extraordinary meetings of the said Society; for suspending or expelling such Members as shall neglect or refuse to comply with the By-Laws and Regulations; and generally for the managing or directing of the affairs and concerns of the said Society: Provided always, that such By-Laws, Rules and Regulations shall in no wise be repugnant to the Statutes, Customs or Laws of this Province, or to the express requirements of this Act; And provided further, that such By-Laws shall have no effect, nor any alterations or additions be made thereto, unless such By-Laws, Rules and Regulations, or the proposed alterations and additions thereto, shall have been announced and read at a meeting of the said Society, at least four weeks previously to their being submitted for the adoption thereof by the said Society, at a meeting at which at least twelve Members shall be present, and unless the same shall be adopted at such further meeting by at least three-fourths of the Members then present.

XI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the above specified enactments shall be held and considered as the Constitution of the said Society or Corporation, and shall continue after the passing of this Act to be the Constitution thereof, and that no addition or alteration thereof can be made thereto, except on the written motion of three Members of the said Society, after four weeks notice thereof, and after publication of the proposed alterations and additions in at least two of the newspapers published in the said City of Montreal during two weeks, and adopted by at least three-fourths of an extraordinary meeting called by public notice for that purpose, and at which not less than twenty-eight Members shall be present.

XII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that it shall and may be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or person administering the Government of the Province for the
