

- Wilhelmina, sister of Frederic of Prussia, death of, iii. 235.
- William III., of England, i. 7.
- William and Mary College, i. 169.
- William of Orange, i. 8.
- William Henry, Fort, i. 327; ii. 36, 75; Colonel Jonathan Bagley in command at, ii. 76; description of the camp at, ii. 89; the English at, ii. 115, 116, 121, 122, 125; Major Eyre takes possession of, ii. 127; Rogers at, ii. 129; ii. 133; St. Patrick's Day celebrated at, ii. 134; Vandrenil's expedition against, ii. 135; strength of the garrison at, ii. 136; attacked by Rigaud, ii. 136-139; ii. 140, 165, 181; ruins of, ii. 182; description of, ii. 184; Lieutenant-Colonel Monro in command, ii. 184; summoned by Montcalm to surrender, ii. 187; refuses, ii. 187; the attack, ii. 188; the capitulation, ii. 194; the wounded butchered by the Indians, ii. 194; the massacre, ii. 195-202; destruction of, ii. 202; the responsibility for the signal of butchery at, ii. 203; ii. 294; Colonel Cummings in command at, ii. 321; iii. 7, 79, 91, 165, 228; testimony on the attack on, iii. 276-279.
- Williams College, founded by Ephraim Williams, i. 302.
- Williams, Colonel Ephraim, in Shirley's expedition against Crown Point, i. 301; founds Williams College, i. 302; on the character of the provincial army, i. 303; impatient at the delays, i. 304; letter to Dwight from, i. 305; at the Drowned Lands, i. 313; death of, i. 314, 322.
- Williams, Fort, built by the English on the Mohawk, ii. 61, 62.
- Williams, Colonel Israel, letter from Ephraim Williams to, i. 303; letter from Pomeroy to, i. 304; papers of, i. 328; letters from Dr. Thomas Williams to, ii. 89, 93; letters from Colonel William Williams to, ii. 94, 321, 327.
- Williams, Josiah, wounded in the battle of Lake George, i. 322.
- Williams' regiment, in the battle of Lake George, i. 318.
- Williams, Stephen, chaplain, in Shirley's expedition against Crown Point, i. 302; at Fort Lyman, i. 307.
- Williams, Thomas, surgeon, in Shirley's expedition against Crown Point, i. 302; impatient at the delays, i. 304, 305; on the battle of Lake George, i. 317; letter to his wife, i. 322; on the English losses in the battle of Lake George, i. 323, 324; letters of, i. 328; on the condition of the provincial camps, ii. 89; anxious about Oswego, ii. 93; on the capture of Oswego by the French, ii. 94; on the exploits of Robert Rogers, ii. 124.
- Williams, Mrs. Thomas, letters from her husband to, i. 322; ii. 94.
- Williams, Colonel William, letters from Marsh to, i. 316, 322; his letters to Colonel Israel Williams, ii. 94, 321, 327.
- Williamsburg, i. 139; Washington at, i. 142; i. 147; description of, i. 169; Dinwiddie at, i. 237.
- Will's Creek, trading-house built