ROCHESTER HERE TODAY.

The Leafs return home today after taking four out of five from the Royals in Montreal. The pitchers are going fine and the Kelleyites have struck their stride. Jawn Ganzel and his Rochester Hustlers will open a four-game series at the island this afternoon, winding up with a double-header Saturday. Owing to Fitzpatrick breaking his ankle in Montreal yesterday, McConnell will hold down the keystone sack. The game will be called at 3.30 p.m. working at the corner of Queen and Blantyre avenue on Tuesday afternoon. The inquest was adjourned till the 23rd.

Bill Bradley's Hopes Cash in Another Ticket at Montreal-Fitz Slides Into the Plate With His Leg Doubled Under Him and Is Car- O'Hara, If ried Off the Field.

MONTREAL, July 16.—(Special.)—Four out of five the Leafs made it this afternoon, when the last game of the present series—incidentally the last series of the Toronto Club on Montreal grounds—was won by a score of 5 to 4. As far as the Royals' side of the case goes, it was the same old story as in the other games of the series. The Royals started well, but failed to last.

Getting away with a two-run lead in the first innings and increasing that two-run to four-run lead in the fourth, it looked as the the Royals might at he spaghetti Eater Blew.

Baseball is a queer old game, however, in which as often as not the first

The sixth, however, he started by passing Fitzpatrick. Then Bill O'Hara rapped a two-base blow, scoring Fitzpatrick, and the fat was in the fire for garden, Northen rapped one at Dale and Fitzpatrick started for home. Dale fielded the ball smartly and threw fair. Tony grooved one for Schultz and the C. D. Q. sign was hoisted to attract the attention of Gene Dale, who had been warming up in the office. Dale came to the rescue, but in-stead of helping Tony out of a hole got a little deeper in himself. Nor-then's out advanced Schultz. Purtell then's out advanced Schultz. Purtell juggled Bill Bradley's grounder and Hugh Bradley was walked, filling the bases. Then came Ed Holly with a two-bagger, and two more runs were registered and the score tied. Hugh Bradley attempted to come home on Bemis' rap, but died at the plate, and Lush finished the inning by flying to the outfield.

But had to be carried off the field, and a medical examination later revealed the fact that he had broke a bone in his ankle. W. Bradley finished the inning by grounding to Joe Yaeger, who was reinstated during the morning by President Ed Barrow.

TO REPORT AT ONCE

Terre Haute Players to Join Leafs

Early Next Week—Both

Have Speed Have Speed.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., July 16. — President McCaffery and Manager Joe Kelley of the Toronto International League Club, watched the local club and Terre Haute play here today. The To-ronto magnate and his manager were here to watch the work of Infielder Pick and Outfielder Kroy of the Terre Haute team. Pick and Kroy were purchased by the Toronto Club early in the season, for delivery after the Central League season closes, but it is learned here that they are wanted

Pick and Kroy have been going at a great clip, and the Toronte management have been dickering with Terre Haute for the last week to deliver the players at once. When President McCaffery was notified by wire that Fizzpatrick, the Toronto team's second sacker, had broken his ankle in Montreal, the negolations were renewed, and while it could not be confirmed here tonight, it leaked out that the Toronto Club gave Terre Haute a good sum over the purchase price to let Pick and Kroy join the Leafs at once. If this is true, the two players will be in Toronto by Monday. Pick could be used in the infield right

Both are reported to be very fast on their feet. Kroy is a won-derful fielder and a hard man to pitch to. He is short and a left-hand hitter, and lays over the plate in the most tantalizing manner. Pick is a big man, paysically, and has every attribute of a good bail player. He is an exceptionally good hitter.
