TRIAL A FARCE, SAYS SULZER TRIBUNAL RULED BY TAMMANY EXECUTED 'POLITICAL LYNCHING'

Deposed Governor Says Horse Thief in Frontier Days Would Have Received Squarer Deal—Believes Light Thrown on Murphy's Methods Will Mean Doom of Machine.

ALBANY, Oct. 18.—(Can. Press).— Wm. Sulzer ceased to be governor of the state of New York on noon today. He was removed from office by the high court of impeachment, by a vote of 45 to 12, two members not voting.

The verdict of the court was that Sulzer was guilty of falsification, perjury and an attempt to suppress evidence against him. Of all other charges he was acquitted, the court today unanimously voting him not guilty of the four remaining articles of the impeachment not passed upon when it adjourned last night.

By a virtually unanimous vote also, the impeachment tribunal decided that Sulzer should not be punished by disqualification to hold office of honor and trust in this state in the future.
This would have been the extreme penalty under the law.

The ousted executive was served with a copy of the verdict of the court at the executive mansion, at a few minutes before six o'clock tonight.

"Good, I thank you," he said to the sergeant at arms of the senate, who delivered the document.

Political Lynching.
"Mr. Sulzer, private citizen," will leave the capitol probably on Sunday—wherefore he has not disclosed.

The outgoing executive issued a statement in which he denounced the tribunal which had removed him as "Murphy's high court of infamy."

Sulzer declared that his trial was a political lynching as far as the Tammany part of the court was concerned—the consummation of a deep hated political conspiracy to oust him from office.

"A horse thief in frontier days," he says "would have received a squarer deal."

"Had I but served the boss with half the zeal I did the state, Wm. Sulzer would never have been impeached," he said.

Trial a Farce.
The Sulzer statement follows in part:
"In response to requests from friends throughout the state, for some expression from me, I can only say at this time that I am glad my trial is over.

"By virtue of a power, beyond the present control of our electorate, I now hand back to the people the commission they gave me, and I hand it back to them untarnished and unsullied.

Mme. Tchuberlak began vehemently to reproach the boy for telling "such shameful untruths," but was stopped by the president.

Among today's witnesses was a schoolboy named Zarudsky, who confronted Mme. Vera Tchuberlak, mother of the murdered boy's play-fellow, and insisted on the accuracy of his previous statement that in the witness room on the opening day of the trial Mme. Tchuberlak had tried to persuade him to testify that he had seen Belles dragging off Yushinsky.

Stenographers at Kiev Warned Against Garbling Evi- dence to Create Wrong Impression.

KIEV, Russia, Oct. 17.—(Can. Press).—At the opening of today's session of the trial of Mevdel Belles for the murder of Andrew Yushinsky, the president of the court complained that the stenographic reports of the trial organized by the Kievska Myel and used largely by the Russian and European newspapers were garbled accounts of the proceedings. The stenographers were warned that if their alleged practice of misrepresentamight be obliged to withdraw his sanction for the taking of shorthand notes.

HIGH PRAISE FOR CARMANIA'S CAPTAIN

Attacks on Captain Barr Classed as Gross Libels by Skipper of Rappahannock Who Says Barr Did Not At- tempt to Gain Glory for Himself.

By a Staff Reporter.
HALIFAX, N.S., Oct. 17.—Charges that Captain Barr of the Carmania did not do everything that lay in his power to rescue the passengers of the Volturno were characterized as "grossly unjust and untrue, and the product of malicious ignorance" by Capt. Hernden of the Furness liner Rappahannock, in an interview with The World tonight.

Capt. Hernden, who was the first to get alongside the Volturno, and who landed the first survivors on this continent, declares that Capt. Barr's judgment and work all day cannot be too highly praised, and by keeping the Carmania out of the final rescue, Capt. Barr materially aided in the work of saving the survivors, and showed himself a big enough man to stand by and let others who were in a better position to do the work carry it out rather than attempt to gain glory for himself.

Gross Libels.
When shown a number of American papers which attacked Capt. Barr for not saving more than one person after being the first ship to reach the Volturno, Capt. Hernden declared these were gross libels on the Carmania's skipper. "All through that day," said Capt. Hernden, "everything that possibly could be done was done by Capt. Barr.
It is utterly foolish to say Capt. Barr should have saved more people. He was too big a man to enter into a competition to see who could save the most passengers, and by keeping the Carmania out of the final rescue, he was helping to save more lives than he could have saved himself."

"If more people understood the circumstances under which the rescue was carried out, there would be no criticism of Capt. Barr."

"In the sea that was running at the time, no boat could now against these waves. They had to drift with them, and the only way in which any of the steamers could possibly get boats to the Volturno was to get as close as possible to the windward of the boat leaving away, pump out oil to break the crest of the waves and give the boat a chance to live; have the boat drop down to the Volturno and steam down to the leeward of the immigrant ship and watch out for the boats to drop away leeward of her, then try and pick it up as she drifted past.
That involved a lot of manoeuvring, and when ten or eleven ships were at Montreal as speedily as possible.

That the spare space will be needed before the end of the season and will probably be overtaxed is evident from official reports received from inland points. There were 20,000,000 bushels in the elevators at Fort William on the 27th inst., and the quantity is now almost certainly greater, while the elebor, Midland, Owen Sound, Point Elward, Port Colborne and Fort McNicoll are packed. Grain is being sent down to Montreal as speedily as possible.

GRAIN EXPORTS BREAK RECORDS

More Than Sixty Million Bushels Will Be Shipped From Montreal, Say Harbor Commission.

MONTREAL, Oct. 17.—(Can. Press).— The export of grain from the Port of Montreal for the present season will be from 60,000,000 to 65,000,000 bushels, according to an estimate made at the offices of the harbor commissioners.
This output will be double, or more than double, the quantity exported last season. Grain reported in the elevators this season to date is 40,000,000 bushels.
At present there are but 2,250,000 bushels in the harbor commissioner's elevators, and not more than about a quarter of a million bushels in the Grand Trunk elevator, so that there is space for the accommodation of another million and a half bushels.

to Montreal as speedily as possible.

in the elevators at Fort William on the
almost certainly greater, while the elevators at Timm, Goderich, Depot Harbor, Midland, Owen Sound, Point El-

WILSON DECIDES ON A NEW POLICY

Will Make an Announcement Concerning U. S. Attitude Toward Mexico if Huerta Persists in Holding the Elections Next Month— May Lift Embargo.

(Special to The Toronto World.) WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—President Wilson. It is expected in official circles, will announce in about ten days a new Mexican policy. The principal feature of this policy will be the lifting of the embargo on the revolutionists obtaining arms and ammunition in the United States, a continuance of the interrupted relations with Huerta and a refusal to the Huerta faction of the right to obtain arms in the United States.

This became known today following the receipt of a despatch from Nelson O'Shaughnessy, which gave in detail the meeting of the foreign representatives in Mexico City on Wednesday afternoon.

The meeting was called by the Spanish minister, dean of the diplomatic corps, and was held in the German legation.

According to The World's informant all the representatives at the meeting, with the sole exception of Great Britain, expressed the belief that the United States ought to intervene in Mexico. Great Britain today announced that it did not regard intervention as necessary or desirable. Because of its great British interests it would not withdraw its recognition of Huerta.

Send Warships.
None of the representatives advised the withdrawal of recognition of Huerta. All informed their governments it would be inexpedient to do so at this time. All advised the sending of warships to Mexican waters for the purpose of protecting their nationals and interests.

President Wilson was not surprised at the feelings of the majority of the representatives. He will not, however, allow the action of the representatives to influence him. He has said that he will not withdraw his recognition of Huerta until he has had a chance to have no further dealings with Huerta.
The plan to wait ten days before taking any action toward defining a new policy has been adopted. It is to allow Huerta an opportunity for resignation. If he permits the holding of elections on Oct. 25, as he says his policy is to do, the election will be held. The action taken by President Wilson will be the signal for the adoption of the new policy.

Make Him Resign.
Of course, such a policy as outlined will not be adopted. In the event Huerta does resign before or on October 25, such action would be necessary to allow Huerta an opportunity for
the adoption of the new policy.

Permitting the revolutionists to obtain arms and ammunition in the United States would carry with it recognition of their belligerency, but it would not mean recognition of de facto power. In the opinion of many, the revolutionists, with the support of the United States, would be sufficient to permit the purchase of arms and ammunition in the United States would be sufficient to permit the purchase of arms and ammunition in the United States would be sufficient to permit the purchase of arms and ammunition in the United States would be sufficient to permit the purchase of arms and ammunition in the United States would be sufficient to permit the purchase of arms and ammunition in the United States would be sufficient to permit the purchase of arms and ammunition in
