VALCARTIER CAMP. Sept. 16.—
The day passed in camp with little occurring out of the ordinary routine.
The unfortunate death of James Stevenson of Kingsten, who had come to camp to join the army service corps, was perhaps the only outstanding event. Steven on endeavored to crawl beneath a string of freight cars and weas cut in two. All witnesses agree that the man himself was to blame.

Miss Mary Tupper, a grand-daughter of Sir Charles Tupper, has written to Col. Sam Hughes asking that she be allowed to join the nursing
