

their old
 ks are
 into the
 eshold ;
 rder is
 Abbot,
 . The
 ver and
 rule, is
 at, fish,
 oles and

to watch
 labor, in
 costume
 st to the
 w strange
 uttered ;
 e father,
 ything is
 must be
 exercises.
 ly at the
 attended
 Trappe.
 oat wharf
 y visitors

The Trappists at Dinner.

to the Monastery for a trifling fare. Parties may leave Montreal in the morning, reach Oka at 10.30 o'clock, and return same day, by the same steamer, "Sovereign," at 3.25 p.m., thus having ample time to spend at the Monastery and as well to drive to the top of Mount Calvaire, visiting en route the seven stations of the cross, and enjoy the most magnificent panorama of the lake and surrounding country from the summit.

The Lake of Two Mountains now widens out, below Oka, to its greatest width, about fifteen miles, and far

The Trappists in Meditation.