PLAYS PICTURES AND MUSIC.

"Chin Chin." That delightful and famous entertainment, "Chin Chin," will be presented at the New Princess Theatre next week with the usual Wednesday and Saturday matinees. "Chin Chin" is Charles Dillingham's rich production, which comes here after a 10 years' run in New York. In this musical rich show are such numbers as "Violet," "The Gray Moon," "Love Moon," "Good-bye, Girls," "I'm Thru," and the comic song, "Go for the Gong Jue." Seven gorgeous settings make up this stupendous production—pretty dresses, kwit and grotesque dancing and lots of brilliant costumes, including Tom Brown's clown, band as the famous saxophone sextet.

"Ask Dad" will be shown at the Alexandra Theatre all next week, commencing Monday evening. Matinees will be as usual, on Wednesday and Saturday. The unusually capable cast includes Joseph Santley, Ivy Sawyer, Roy Atwell, Juliette Day, Joseph Allen, Georgia Caine, Frederic Graham, Helen Barnes, Miriam Collins, Marjorie Bentley, Helen Clarke, Evelyn Dorn and many others.

"Cinderella" at the Grand. "Cinderella," an English pantomime founded upon the fascinating fairy story of the same name, will be the attraction at the Grand Opera House for the week commencing Monday, with the usual matinees on Wednesday and Saturday. The production, which is in two acts and eleven scenes, is under the personal direction of the well-known author-manager, F. Stuart-Whyte, whose two previous pantomime offerings, "Aladdin" and "Robinson Crusoe," proved such wonderful drawing cards at the Grand in the two seasons past.

Shaw's Reopens. At Shaw's Theatre Monday, the management has secured as the headline attraction George MacFarlane, peer of all baritone singers. Lillian Shaw's character impersonations are particularly well done. John and Winnie Hennings are two clever people with a bright comedy playlet, while McIntosh's Merry Musical Maids should provide plenty of entertainment. Mlle. Nadje, "The Perfect Woman," in a pretentious posing offering, Frank Gaby, a ventriloquist, Walter Fenner and Company and the noted William Fox star, William Farnum, in the Victory Loan feature picture, "A Mother's Heart," complete the bill.

Loew's Theatre. "In Pursuit of Polly," featuring Billie Burke, will be shown next week at Loew's Theatre and Winter Garden. McKay's Scotch Revue, featuring the bill.

$2.00 Duplex Hair Cutter and Stropper Complete Outfit For Only $1.00

We have felt for some time that if the thousands of users of the Duplex Automatic Hair Cutter could stop and sharpen their own cutting blades, the Duplex would be more satisfactory. We have found that at least 100 perfect hair cuts can be obtained from these blades by proper stropping.

No danger of catching scurfy, dandruff, or other diseases. Mothers can cut their children's hair. And you are sure of a smooth, even hair cut at a cost of one cent, instead of paying from 35c to 50c for one that is likely to be uneven and jagged.

But to reward the world who order immediately, and send this ad, with only $2.00, we will send the complete outfit with stropper all ready for instant use, postage paid, to any address. ing a Jazz pipe band, will headline the vaudeville. Alexander Bros. and Evelyn are clever manipulators of rubber balls. The Jack Arnold Trio will offer a melodious diversion of harmony, music and hilarity, and Barlow and Hurst have an up-to-the-minute song fest and pianolog. Anderson and Gouge are sure fire entertainers; Albert and Rogers' original creation, "Nimble Nonsense"—Loew's war pictures and the Mutt and Jeff animated cartoons complete the bill.

Next week at Shea's Hippodrome will be the biggest from an amusement standpoint in the history of the house. The vaudeville end of the program is the best ever. The feature attraction will be "Hello Tokio," a musical comedy with ten people, then the Three Weber Girls in a variety novelty offering, Gertrude Magill & Co. in a comedy success, "The Man of the House," Jimmy O'Brien and Southern Girls in an original series of vaudeville specialties called "Samples," Harry Meehan, the tramp Caruso, and Leigh & LaGrace in a juggling novelty. The feature film is "In Judgment Of," also the 48th Highlanders in France, two comedies and a Pathe News.

At the Gayety. Particularly at the Gayety, producers of extravaganzas have achieved most wonderful results in constructing their offerings, but none has met with the success that has been following "Hello America," Joe Hurtig's most gigantic patriotic musical revue, which comes to the Gayety next week.

At the Strand. Announcement is made that the Henry P. Dixon Producing Company will offer a typical Broadway show in the Big Revue which will be the attraction at the Strand Theatre next week.

Madge Kennedy at Strand. Madge Kennedy in "The Kingdom of Youth," her newest, Goldwyn picture, will form the feature at the Strand Theatre the first half of next week. It may be safely predicted that she thousands of local admirers will not fail to see her next week at the Strand.

Big Regent Reopening. William S. Hart and Dorothy Dalton will co-star in a thrilling picture entitled "The Disciple" at the reopening of the Regent Theatre Monday. There will be an excellent Sunshine Comedy in addition to the Regent Graphic and the famous Regent orchestra. Mme. Nazimova will present "A Woman of France" for the Victory Loan.

Oakwood Reopens Today. A great triple bill will celebrate the reopening of the Oakwood Theatre today. "Money Mad," Douglas Fairbanks in a patriotic feature and "Pathe News."
