ONE MILLION LOSS BY MONTREAL FIRE

Premises of Jennings, Hudson Bay and S. J. Carter Companies Suffer.

Montreal. Jan. 12.—Over a million dollars' worth of damage was caused this afternoon by a spectacular fire which destroyed the plant of Jennings and Company, 15 Wellington street. One hundred and forty motor cars, including nine ambulances to the and ready for shipment, were a total loss and the premises of the Hud-son Bay Company and S. J. Carter and Company were seriously damaged when the flames spread temporarily beyond the control of the firemen, at one time leaping clear across the street and setting ablaze the premises of the Hudson Bay Company on Mc-Gill street. Fireman Jack Ross suffered a fractured callar bone when a part of a wall collapsed on him and nother fireman was taken to the hospital with minor injuries. Suspice attaches to the origin of the fire.

Had Asked Protection.
According to officials of the Jen nings Company, there has been a feeling of danger of some one setting the place afire for some time and was so acute that military protection had actually bees asked for.

The fire broke out shortly after one o'clock and in about two hours was under control. The destroyed premises are partly covered by insurance.

It is stated that an investigation into the origin of the fire will be
