Receipts of live stock at the Union Stock Yards, were 82 carloads, composed of 1714 cattle, 142 sheep, 62 calves and horse.

The quality of fat cattle was fair. Trade was brisk, with prices firmer than a week ago, owing to competition from an unexpected quarter for export cattle.

A Western Ontario export dealer, ha

ing space on one of the ocean boats to fill, who had been disappointed in getting cattle from another source, tried to get them on this market.

This unexpected demand caused a furry on the market, and cattle were bought on the market, and cattle were bought for export that on other occasions would have been left for the local butcher trade.
