153 GARS AT CITY YARDS

Trade Slow, Prices Lower - Sheep, Calves, Lambs Steady-Hogs Firm.

Receipts of live stock at the city market since Tuesday, as reported by the railways, were 153 carloads, composed or 2464 cattle, 2371 hogs, 2590 sheep and lambs, 225 calves and 1 horse.

The quality of the cattle in all classes was about the same as on Tuesday, many poor and a very small percentage of what could be called good.

Considering the heavy deliveries there was a fair trade at lower prices, especially for stockers and feeders of poor quality, which sold at 20c to 30c per cwt. lower than at any time this season.

Exporters.

Strictly speaking, there were none on

Strictly speaking, there were none on sale, outside of a few bulls, which sold at $3.25 to $3.75 per cwt. There were 8 cattle, which are quoted below, of very choice quality, bought for a special market, at a price that would not be considered for a moment for the regular export trade.

Butchers.

The bulk of the butchers' cattle sold between $2.50 and $3.75 per cwt., as will be seen by the sales quoted below. George Rowntree, the heaviest buyer for local purposes, who bought 17 loads of butcher cattle for the Harris Abattoir Cormany, gave the following quotations: Best butchers, 1000 to 1250 lbs., of which there were few, at $4.15 to $4.60; fair to good helfers and steers, 900 to 1000 lbs., at $3.85; medium light helfers, 800 to 900 lbs., at $3.85; medium light helfers, 800 to 900 lbs., at $3.55; good cows, $3 to $3.60; medium cows, $2.40 to $2.85; canner cows, and bulls, $1 to $2 per cwt.

Feeders and Stockers.

H. & W. Murby report a large run of stockers and feeders this week, with market weaker for the medium and common grades, which class sold off from 15c to 25c per cwt. The good stuff held its own fairly well and more of this class, especially 1000 to 1100-pound steers, would have sold.

Messrs. Murby bought 350 this week at the following quotations:

Best feeders, 1050 to 1100 pounds, at $3.25 to $3.65; best feeders, 900 to 1000 pounds, $2.50 to $3; best stockers, 800 to 900 pounds, $2.50 to $3; best stockers, 800 to 900 pounds, $2.50 to $2.70; medium stockers, 700 to 900 pounds, $2.15 to $4.60; common stockers, 500 to 700 pounds, $1.50 to $2.

Milkers and Springera.

For good to choice milkers and forward springers there was a better de-

For good to choice milkers and forward springers there was a better demand. Two choice cows sold at $59 each, but the bulk of the best cows would sell around $45 as an average price. Medium and common light cows were slow sale at $25 to $35 each. Veal Calves.

As usual, there was little change in the market for calves, neither as regards quality or prices, which ranged from $3 to $6.50 per cwt., the bulk selling at $4.50 to $5.50 per cwt.

Sheep and Lambs.

Receipts were very large, the quality in many instances being poor. Export ewes sold at $4.25 to $4.40; rams and culls at $3 to $3.50; lambs sold at $4.25 for culls and up to $5.50 for the best lots.

Hogs.

Deliveries of nearly 3000 hogs sold at unchanged quotations. Mr. Harris got about 2500, and his quotations were $6.25 for selects and $5 to $5.25 for all that did not grade up to the select standard.

W. Revington, farmer and live stock dealer, of Biddulph, Ont., sold the best two cows on the market at $59 each to James Armstrong & Son.

Wesley Dunn bought 300 sheep at $4.40 per cwt.; 1200 lambs at $5.12½ per cwt.; 75 calves at $7.50 each, all of which are average quotations.

calves at $7.50 each, all of which are average quotations.

Alfred Pugsley bought for Harris Abattoir Company 950 lambs at $4.50 to $5.25 per cwt.; 300 sheep at $4.40 per cwt.; 75 calves at $2 to $6 per cwt.

R. J. Collins sold 1 load feeders, 1060 lbs., at $3.15, and bought export bulls, 1700 lbs. each, at $3.75; 1 load heifers, 900 lbs. each, at $3.55; 50 cattle for M. Vincent of Montreal at $3 to $3.80 per cwt.
