

A Bright Boy.

Teacher—In what battle was Gen. Blank killed?
Bright Boy—His last one.

'Worse than Cracked.

Bjones—That fellow Gagley tried to borrow $500 of me this morning.

Smythe—Five hundred? He must be cracked!

Bjones—No; he's not cracked. He's broke.

IT HAS NO EQUAL FOR DYSPEPSIA.

A. J. WHITE & Co:

DEAR SIRS,—I could send you a great many testimonials where the parties have received great benefit from the use of Mother Seigel's Syrup. I have never heard of any other remedy equal to it for dyspepsia; it has performed some wonderful cures here. Money would not tempt me to be put back where I was when I began to take this medicine; if I had not got help I would have been obliged to give up business, but the Seigel's Syrup has nearly cured me of dyspepsia. I would advise every one who is suffering from dyspepsia, to try Mother Seigel's Syrup.
