

FINANCIAL BROKERS

OSLER & HAMMOND... STOCK BROKERS AND FINANCIAL AGENTS

STOCKS, GRAIN, PROVISIONS

DIRECT WIRES to all exchanges. Write for daily market letter.

J. A. GORMALLY & CO. 56 AND 58 VICTORIA ST.

R. D. FISHER & CO. Brokers, 10 James Building, Corner King and Yonge Streets.

A. E. AMES & CO (Members Toronto Stock Exchange) Buy and sell stocks on the Toronto, Montreal, New York and London Exchanges.

HENRY A. KING & CO. BROKERS. STOCKS, GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

JOHN STARK & CO. Members Toronto Stock Exchange 26 Toronto Street.

R. H. TEMPLE, Member Toronto Stock Exchange, 15 MELINDA STREET.

C. C. BAINES (Member Toronto Stock Exchange) Mining stocks bought and sold on commission.

PRODUCE DEALERS. Superior Meats at low prices in no economy.

HENRY WICKSON, St. Lawrence, Telephone 2967.

POULTRY WANTED. Turkeys, Geese, Ducks, 50c to 60c.

MONEY TO LOAN ON STOCKS. Bonds and debentures on convenient terms.

MISCELLANEOUS. Miners' and Prospectors' SUPPLIES.

PRICE LEWIS & SON (LIMITED) corner King and Victoria-streets, Toronto.

BEST QUALITY OAPSTONE FOOT WARMERS ALL SIZES. LOWEST PRICES.

KENHEAD HARDWARE CO., 6 ADELAIDE-ST. EAST, phones 6 and 104.

J. H. ASH, Commission Merchant, 234 CHURCH STREET.

Various Engine Works Company, Ltd. Office—83 Front Street West, Toronto.

DROP IN! We keep our office open to sell Coal and we are kept busy.

THE STANDARD FUEL COMPANY OF TORONTO, Limited, TL. 263, 1896.

NINETEENTH YEAR

CONFERENCE ON THE KIMBERLEY

And Will Offer an Amendment When Second Reading Comes Up.

The Party Caucus at Ottawa Yesterday was Harmonious and Unanimous Against the Terms of the Contract, Though Admitting that an All-Canadian Route is Necessary—Deputations From Collingwood and Tilbury—Personal and General Notes From the Capital.

Ottawa, Feb. 9.—(Special).—The Conservative caucus held in room 40 this morning was characterized by the utmost harmony.

Mr. McArthur, M.P., introduced a Collingwood deputation to Mr. Tarte to-day to ask for further improvements at that port.

Mr. Tarte, in reply, said that a provision had been made for the creation of a large pier, and that the pier will be checked in the end.

Mr. Tarte's Canal Project. Messrs. Omer, D. T. Henry and J. Stewart of Tilbury comprise a deputation who are to-day in connection with Mr. Tarte.

Mr. Tarte's Canal Project. Messrs. Omer, D. T. Henry and J. Stewart of Tilbury comprise a deputation who are to-day in connection with Mr. Tarte.

Mr. Tarte's Canal Project. Messrs. Omer, D. T. Henry and J. Stewart of Tilbury comprise a deputation who are to-day in connection with Mr. Tarte.

Mr. Tarte's Canal Project. Messrs. Omer, D. T. Henry and J. Stewart of Tilbury comprise a deputation who are to-day in connection with Mr. Tarte.

Mr. Tarte's Canal Project. Messrs. Omer, D. T. Henry and J. Stewart of Tilbury comprise a deputation who are to-day in connection with Mr. Tarte.

Mr. Tarte's Canal Project. Messrs. Omer, D. T. Henry and J. Stewart of Tilbury comprise a deputation who are to-day in connection with Mr. Tarte.

Mr. Tarte's Canal Project. Messrs. Omer, D. T. Henry and J. Stewart of Tilbury comprise a deputation who are to-day in connection with Mr. Tarte.

Mr. Tarte's Canal Project. Messrs. Omer, D. T. Henry and J. Stewart of Tilbury comprise a deputation who are to-day in connection with Mr. Tarte.

Mr. Tarte's Canal Project. Messrs. Omer, D. T. Henry and J. Stewart of Tilbury comprise a deputation who are to-day in connection with Mr. Tarte.

Mr. Tarte's Canal Project. Messrs. Omer, D. T. Henry and J. Stewart of Tilbury comprise a deputation who are to-day in connection with Mr. Tarte.

Mr. Tarte's Canal Project. Messrs. Omer, D. T. Henry and J. Stewart of Tilbury comprise a deputation who are to-day in connection with Mr. Tarte.

Mr. Tarte's Canal Project. Messrs. Omer, D. T. Henry and J. Stewart of Tilbury comprise a deputation who are to-day in connection with Mr. Tarte.

Mr. Tarte's Canal Project. Messrs. Omer, D. T. Henry and J. Stewart of Tilbury comprise a deputation who are to-day in connection with Mr. Tarte.

Mr. Tarte's Canal Project. Messrs. Omer, D. T. Henry and J. Stewart of Tilbury comprise a deputation who are to-day in connection with Mr. Tarte.

THE HEROIC SURVEYOR TALKED TO A BRILLIANT AUDIENCE ABOUT THE GOLD FIELDS.

Ottawa, Feb. 9.—(Special).—A large and fashionable audience greeted William Ogilvie, the hero of the Yukon, at the Russell Theatre last night.

Mr. Ogilvie, who is now in Ottawa on a lecture tour, was introduced by Mr. J. W. G. Macdonald, M.P., and a large number of members of the audience were present.

Mr. Ogilvie, who is now in Ottawa on a lecture tour, was introduced by Mr. J. W. G. Macdonald, M.P., and a large number of members of the audience were present.

Mr. Ogilvie, who is now in Ottawa on a lecture tour, was introduced by Mr. J. W. G. Macdonald, M.P., and a large number of members of the audience were present.

Mr. Ogilvie, who is now in Ottawa on a lecture tour, was introduced by Mr. J. W. G. Macdonald, M.P., and a large number of members of the audience were present.

Mr. Ogilvie, who is now in Ottawa on a lecture tour, was introduced by Mr. J. W. G. Macdonald, M.P., and a large number of members of the audience were present.

Mr. Ogilvie, who is now in Ottawa on a lecture tour, was introduced by Mr. J. W. G. Macdonald, M.P., and a large number of members of the audience were present.

Mr. Ogilvie, who is now in Ottawa on a lecture tour, was introduced by Mr. J. W. G. Macdonald, M.P., and a large number of members of the audience were present.

Mr. Ogilvie, who is now in Ottawa on a lecture tour, was introduced by Mr. J. W. G. Macdonald, M.P., and a large number of members of the audience were present.

Mr. Ogilvie, who is now in Ottawa on a lecture tour, was introduced by Mr. J. W. G. Macdonald, M.P., and a large number of members of the audience were present.

Mr. Ogilvie, who is now in Ottawa on a lecture tour, was introduced by Mr. J. W. G. Macdonald, M.P., and a large number of members of the audience were present.

Mr. Ogilvie, who is now in Ottawa on a lecture tour, was introduced by Mr. J. W. G. Macdonald, M.P., and a large number of members of the audience were present.

Mr. Ogilvie, who is now in Ottawa on a lecture tour, was introduced by Mr. J. W. G. Macdonald, M.P., and a large number of members of the audience were present.

Mr. Ogilvie, who is now in Ottawa on a lecture tour, was introduced by Mr. J. W. G. Macdonald, M.P., and a large number of members of the audience were present.

Mr. Ogilvie, who is now in Ottawa on a lecture tour, was introduced by Mr. J. W. G. Macdonald, M.P., and a large number of members of the audience were present.

Mr. Ogilvie, who is now in Ottawa on a lecture tour, was introduced by Mr. J. W. G. Macdonald, M.P., and a large number of members of the audience were present.

Mr. Ogilvie, who is now in Ottawa on a lecture tour, was introduced by Mr. J. W. G. Macdonald, M.P., and a large number of members of the audience were present.

Mr. Ogilvie, who is now in Ottawa on a lecture tour, was introduced by Mr. J. W. G. Macdonald, M.P., and a large number of members of the audience were present.

Mr. Ogilvie, who is now in Ottawa on a lecture tour, was introduced by Mr. J. W. G. Macdonald, M.P., and a large number of members of the audience were present.

TIME FOR A CHANGE.

Some Pointed Remarks About the Ex-Lieut.-Governor of Quebec and the Conservative Party.

Ottawa, Feb. 9.—(Special).—The following editorial in to-night's Journal is attracting a good deal of attention:

"To the average Anglo-Saxon mind, the view which Sir J. A. Chapleau takes of that famous stolen letter to Mr. Tarte is most picturesque. Sir J. A. Chapleau is emphatic in assuring the public that Sir Charles Tupper or any other man, who comments on that letter, or even admits to have heard of its contents, is confessing to being a receiver of stolen goods, and necessarily as bad as the thief."

But one suspects that whether Sir Joseph discusses the document or not, the country at large has had an eye on the letter, and may be thinking that to trust politically leaders who are in power on the best of terms with the policies of leaders of the opposite party is a mistake.

The stolen letter, which is doubtless a document of some importance, is a statement that is often a figure of speech meaning out of politics until it is handed by a politician to a newspaper editor, and then it is a fact.

But one suspects that whether Sir Joseph discusses the document or not, the country at large has had an eye on the letter, and may be thinking that to trust politically leaders who are in power on the best of terms with the policies of leaders of the opposite party is a mistake.

The stolen letter, which is doubtless a document of some importance, is a statement that is often a figure of speech meaning out of politics until it is handed by a politician to a newspaper editor, and then it is a fact.

But one suspects that whether Sir Joseph discusses the document or not, the country at large has had an eye on the letter, and may be thinking that to trust politically leaders who are in power on the best of terms with the policies of leaders of the opposite party is a mistake.

The stolen letter, which is doubtless a document of some importance, is a statement that is often a figure of speech meaning out of politics until it is handed by a politician to a newspaper editor, and then it is a fact.

But one suspects that whether Sir Joseph discusses the document or not, the country at large has had an eye on the letter, and may be thinking that to trust politically leaders who are in power on the best of terms with the policies of leaders of the opposite party is a mistake.

The stolen letter, which is doubtless a document of some importance, is a statement that is often a figure of speech meaning out of politics until it is handed by a politician to a newspaper editor, and then it is a fact.

But one suspects that whether Sir Joseph discusses the document or not, the country at large has had an eye on the letter, and may be thinking that to trust politically leaders who are in power on the best of terms with the policies of leaders of the opposite party is a mistake.

The stolen letter, which is doubtless a document of some importance, is a statement that is often a figure of speech meaning out of politics until it is handed by a politician to a newspaper editor, and then it is a fact.

But one suspects that whether Sir Joseph discusses the document or not, the country at large has had an eye on the letter, and may be thinking that to trust politically leaders who are in power on the best of terms with the policies of leaders of the opposite party is a mistake.

The stolen letter, which is doubtless a document of some importance, is a statement that is often a figure of speech meaning out of politics until it is handed by a politician to a newspaper editor, and then it is a fact.

But one suspects that whether Sir Joseph discusses the document or not, the country at large has had an eye on the letter, and may be thinking that to trust politically leaders who are in power on the best of terms with the policies of leaders of the opposite party is a mistake.

The stolen letter, which is doubtless a document of some importance, is a statement that is often a figure of speech meaning out of politics until it is handed by a politician to a newspaper editor, and then it is a fact.

But one suspects that whether Sir Joseph discusses the document or not, the country at large has had an eye on the letter, and may be thinking that to trust politically leaders who are in power on the best of terms with the policies of leaders of the opposite party is a mistake.

The stolen letter, which is doubtless a document of some importance, is a statement that is often a figure of speech meaning out of politics until it is handed by a politician to a newspaper editor, and then it is a fact.

LOAD SALISBURY'S WORDS OF CAUTION.

The Dangers of Too Great Acquisitions of Territory.

A Moderate and Judicious Reply to the Earl of Kimberley—France Got the Better of Great Britain in Madagascar—French Government Has Not Acted Fairly—Cable News.

London, Feb. 9.—Lord Salisbury, in his speech in the House of Lords yesterday, said that the Earl of Kimberley in his speech had repeatedly warned the Government against the dangers of excessive acquisitions. Lord Salisbury declared that he heartily concurred with the noble Earl, and added:

"I believe these are reasons which our opinion of a reaction to the doctrine of 30 or 40 years ago, when it was thought that it was our duty to fight everybody and take everything. I think that a very dangerous doctrine, not merely because we would thereby excite other nations against us, and the reputation we are now enjoying in Europe is not by any means pleasant or advantageous—because there is a serious danger of our overtaxing our strength."

"However strong we may be, there is a point beyond which our strength does not go. It is courage and wisdom to exert that strength to the attainable limit, but not to go beyond it. It is of extreme importance that we do not allow party feelings to prejudice our judgment, and following the narrow lines that separate undue concessions and undue territory from the narrow line that separates the British from the French Government, we have been the ruin of nations as great and as powerful as ourselves."

France went as regards Madagascar. Lord Salisbury admitted that France had got the better of England as regards Madagascar. He said that the British Government had not acted fairly in the matter, and that the French Government had acted fairly.

Lord Salisbury admitted that France had got the better of England as regards Madagascar. He said that the British Government had not acted fairly in the matter, and that the French Government had acted fairly.

Lord Salisbury admitted that France had got the better of England as regards Madagascar. He said that the British Government had not acted fairly in the matter, and that the French Government had acted fairly.

Lord Salisbury admitted that France had got the better of England as regards Madagascar. He said that the British Government had not acted fairly in the matter, and that the French Government had acted fairly.

Lord Salisbury admitted that France had got the better of England as regards Madagascar. He said that the British Government had not acted fairly in the matter, and that the French Government had acted fairly.

Lord Salisbury admitted that France had got the better of England as regards Madagascar. He said that the British Government had not acted fairly in the matter, and that the French Government had acted fairly.

Lord Salisbury admitted that France had got the better of England as regards Madagascar. He said that the British Government had not acted fairly in the matter, and that the French Government had acted fairly.

Lord Salisbury admitted that France had got the better of England as regards Madagascar. He said that the British Government had not acted fairly in the matter, and that the French Government had acted fairly.

Lord Salisbury admitted that France had got the better of England as regards Madagascar. He said that the British Government had not acted fairly in the matter, and that the French Government had acted fairly.

Lord Salisbury admitted that France had got the better of England as regards Madagascar. He said that the British Government had not acted fairly in the matter, and that the French Government had acted fairly.

Lord Salisbury admitted that France had got the better of England as regards Madagascar. He said that the British Government had not acted fairly in the matter, and that the French Government had acted fairly.

Lord Salisbury admitted that France had got the better of England as regards Madagascar. He said that the British Government had not acted fairly in the matter, and that the French Government had acted fairly.

Lord Salisbury admitted that France had got the better of England as regards Madagascar. He said that the British Government had not acted fairly in the matter, and that the French Government had acted fairly.

Lord Salisbury admitted that France had got the better of England as regards Madagascar. He said that the British Government had not acted fairly in the matter, and that the French Government had acted fairly.

MR. OTTAWA: There there posts have been in for over twenty-six year, and they've got kinder dozy rotten. Guess I'll have to put noo ones in.

THE RUSH TO THE KLONDIKE

McKenzie and Mann's Manager of Construction is at Vancouver.

Will go North Shortly and Hopes to Have the Road Between the Stikine River and Teslin Lake Open by March 31—Bathschmidt Has Bought a Hunker Creek Claim and Will Develop it Once.

Vancouver, B.C., Feb. 9.—T. H. White, manager of construction for McKenzie and Mann, who arrived in Vancouver yesterday, will go north at the end of the month to inspect the road between the Stikine River and Teslin Lake.

Bathschmidt has bought a hunker creek claim and will develop it once. The claim is situated on the Stikine River, and is one of the best claims in the district.

The Bathschmidt claim is one of the best claims in the district. It is situated on the Stikine River, and is one of the best claims in the district.

The Bathschmidt claim is one of the best claims in the district. It is situated on the Stikine River, and is one of the best claims in the district.

The Bathschmidt claim is one of the best claims in the district. It is situated on the Stikine River, and is one of the best claims in the district.

The Bathschmidt claim is one of the best claims in the district. It is situated on the Stikine River, and is one of the best claims in the district.

The Bathschmidt claim is one of the best claims in the district. It is situated on the Stikine River, and is one of the best claims in the district.

LUETGERT AGAIN POUND GUILTY.

The Big Sausage Maker Will Go to Prison for Life for Stealing $100,000.

Chicago, Feb. 9.—The Luetgert jury has brought in a verdict of guilty, fixing the penalty at life imprisonment. Luetgert received this verdict with a laugh. The jury retired at 4:30, and took their first ballot at 5:10. It was unanimous for conviction. A new trial will be asked for.

The Luetgert jury has brought in a verdict of guilty, fixing the penalty at life imprisonment. Luetgert received this verdict with a laugh. The jury retired at 4:30, and took their first ballot at 5:10. It was unanimous for conviction. A new trial will be asked for.

The Luetgert jury has brought in a verdict of guilty, fixing the penalty at life imprisonment. Luetgert received this verdict with a laugh. The jury retired at 4:30, and took their first ballot at 5:10. It was unanimous for conviction. A new trial will be asked for.

The Luetgert jury has brought in a verdict of guilty, fixing the penalty at life imprisonment. Luetgert received this verdict with a laugh. The jury retired at 4:30, and took their first ballot at 5:10. It was unanimous for conviction. A new trial will be asked for.

The Luetgert jury has brought in a verdict of guilty, fixing the penalty at life imprisonment. Luetgert received this verdict with a laugh. The jury retired at 4:30, and took their first ballot at 5:10. It was unanimous for conviction. A new trial will be asked for.

The Luetgert jury has brought in a verdict of guilty, fixing the penalty at life imprisonment. Luetgert received this verdict with a laugh. The jury retired at 4:30, and took their first ballot at 5:10. It was unanimous for conviction. A new trial will be asked for.

The Luetgert jury has brought in a verdict of guilty, fixing the penalty at life imprisonment. Luetgert received this verdict with a laugh. The jury retired at 4:30, and took their first ballot at 5:10. It was unanimous for conviction. A new trial will be asked for.

The Luetgert jury has brought in a verdict of guilty, fixing the penalty at life imprisonment. Luetgert received this verdict with a laugh. The jury retired at 4:30, and took their first ballot at 5:10. It was unanimous for conviction. A new trial will be asked for.

MAY REMAIN ANOTHER YEAR

Lord Aberdeen Will Not be Recalled if He Wishes to Stay in Canada.

That is the Honor from Friends of the Countess in Montreal—Chapleau's Organs Intimate that the French Baron the ex-Lieutenant-Governor and Sir Charles Tupper Cannot be Recalled.

Montreal, Feb. 9.—(Special).—Intimate friends of Lady Aberdeen in Montreal declare that if the Governor-General desires to remain another year in Canada he will not be recalled. It is said that the Countess of Aberdeen has said as much to her acquaintances in this city.

Chapleau's Two Organs. Sir Adolphe Chapleau has two organs here, La Presse and La Monde Canadien. The latter says that the rupture between Sir Charles and Sir Adolphe is complete, and cannot be healed, while La Presse adds: "It was not the French Conservatives who divided the party, but rather the Ontario allies, whom we maintained in power during twenty years, and who deserted us on the first occasion. It was those people who, with their selfishness and lack of patriotism, ruined the old Canadian-Macdonald organization and those of our public men who refused them their confidence are not to blame."

Died in the Far West. A despatch was received here to-day announcing the death of James P. Mitchell of Medicine Hat, son of James Mitchell of Newcastle, and nephew of Hon. Peter Mitchell. The widow, who has been to Newcastle visiting her father-in-law, will arrive in Montreal to-morrow on route for the West.

La Patrie announces that the Ontario Government has appointed Mr. Alex. Robinson registrar of Russell, replacing Mr. Keays, deceased.

"No statement to make," was the answer given to the newspapers to-day by both the Grand Trunk and the Canadian Pacific Railway offices, when asked if there was anything new on the question of the rate war.

DESPONDENCY AND SUICIDE. Alex. Fraser Was Out of Work and Feared His Family Would Starve.

Dublin, Feb. 9.—Alexander Fraser committed suicide early this morning by drowning himself in a well. He leaves a widow and a young family, responsibility on his being out of work and the dread that the family might become in want for the necessities of life were the causes of the suicide.

The coroner and Crown Attorney viewed the body this evening and, from certain marks found on it, foul play is suspected. The post-mortem will be held to-morrow morning. An inquest will be held Monday next.

About Coal Dealers. Something that few people know in this city is that almost all of the coal dealers here, especially the large dealers, handle more than one kind of coal, or in other words, different qualities. There is one firm which has obtained a widespread reputation in the United States. This firm is the Kent & Co., and they are doing big things here with this celebrated coal. For a list of the names of the coal dealers, see below King, opposite Webb's.

The World is delivered by our own carrier boys to any part of the city for 3c. per week. Leave your order at office, or telephone 1234.

Full Dress Shirts, White Gloves and Ties at lowest prices at Varcoe's.

COOK'S TURKISH BATHS, 264 KING W. OPEN ALL NIGHT. BATH AND BED 3c.

THE SHERBROOKE COURT. An English Clergyman's Ontario Estate—Will of a York Township Farmer.

The late Rev. William Henry Morden Cartwright of the Old Hall, Bolton, Suffolk, England, left $10,171 in mortgages and $222 in cash in Ontario. Annette Cartwright, his widow, has applied for probate of his will. The personal estate in England is valued at $470. All the property is in Ontario.

Charged With Theft of $100,000. Kate Gasette is a comely, well-dressed young woman, 20 years of age, and she came here from Rochester a couple of weeks ago. She secured a situation as domestic servant with a family on Salisbury-street, and did her work well. The Toronto police have been asked by the Rochester authorities to look out for the young woman, who is wanted in the former city for the charge of stealing $100,000 from a lady for whom she was working there. Detective Davis arrested Miss Gasette yesterday and she was locked up in the cells at headquarters last night.

Telephone 267. E. Barber & Co., 34 Front Street W., for up-to-date printing, quick and neat. Popular prices.

Smoke the old reliable "Tonka Mixture," cool, lasting and sweet.

Drink the divine Manitowish Mineral Water, the best in the world. Swan Brand, agents, 102 and 104 King-street east. Send for circulars.

Pepper's Vapor, Russian and Turkish Baths, 127 and 129 Yonge.

BRITISH HOUSE OF COMMONS.

Michael Davitt Moves to Amend the Address by Proposing Relief for Ireland.

London, Feb. 9.—The debate on the address, in reply to the speech from the Throne, was resumed in the House of Commons to-day. Mr. Michael Davitt, member for South Mayo, moving an amendment, calling attention to the distress in Ireland and the failure of the potato crop. The motion was seconded by Mr. John P. Hayden, member for South Devon, and was supported by Mr. John Dillon, chairman of the Irish Parliamentary Party, and many other members of the House.

Mr. Davitt's amendment was supported by Mr. John Dillon, chairman of the Irish Parliamentary Party, and many other members of the House.

Mr. Davitt's amendment was supported by Mr. John Dillon, chairman of the Irish Parliamentary Party, and many other members of the House.

Mr. Davitt's amendment was supported by Mr. John Dillon, chairman of the Irish Parliamentary Party, and many other members of the House.

Mr. Davitt's amendment was supported by Mr. John Dillon, chairman of the Irish Parliamentary Party, and many other members of the House.

Mr. Davitt's amendment was supported by Mr. John Dillon, chairman of the Irish Parliamentary Party, and many other members of the House.

Mr. Davitt's amendment was supported by Mr. John Dillon, chairman of the Irish Parliamentary Party, and many other members of the House.

Mr. Davitt's amendment was supported by Mr. John Dillon, chairman of the Irish Parliamentary Party, and many other members of the House.

Mr. Davitt's amendment was supported by Mr. John Dillon, chairman of the Irish Parliamentary Party, and many other members of the House.

Mr. Davitt's amendment was supported by Mr. John Dillon, chairman of the Irish Parliamentary Party, and many other members of the House.

Mr. Davitt's amendment was supported by Mr. John Dillon, chairman of the Irish Parliamentary Party, and many other members of the House.

Mr. Davitt's amendment was supported by Mr. John Dillon, chairman of the Irish Parliamentary Party, and many other members of the House.

Mr. Davitt's amendment was supported by Mr. John Dillon, chairman of the Irish Parliamentary Party, and many other members of the House.

Mr. Davitt's amendment was supported by Mr. John Dillon, chairman of the Irish Parliamentary Party, and many other members of the House.

Mr. Davitt's amendment was supported by Mr. John Dillon, chairman of the Irish Parliamentary Party, and many other members of the House.

Mr. Davitt's amendment was supported by Mr. John Dillon, chairman of the Irish Parliamentary Party, and many other members of the House.

Mr. Davitt's amendment was supported by Mr. John Dillon, chairman of the Irish Parliamentary Party, and many other members of the House.

Mr. Davitt's amendment was supported by Mr. John Dillon, chairman of the Irish Parliamentary Party, and many other members of the House.

Mr. Davitt's amendment was supported by Mr. John Dillon, chairman of the Irish Parliamentary Party, and many other members of the House.