Improvement taxes for the 42 acres of park extension. It also pays out $4000 for roadway and fence. But the local rates would soon expire, and in general taxes the city would lose $410 annually. When the trust purchases the further burial area provided by the maps, the city must lose altogether $704 in general taxes, but the trust gives in return for the additional exemption, the deal amounts, with this new aspect, to paying $575 or so an acre for 45 acres of land. These facts will be submitted to Council next meeting.

cessively frank on the subject of assessing Massey Hall. "If I were a trustee," he mit to it," The trustees, he further says, would be justified in closing up and let-ting Council run after them. When the big auditorium was given to the citizens for the larger public gatherings, no prolends on his $125,000 investment from any receipts. The trustees make nothing out are the trustees make nothing out are do not an assessment of $57,000 since its inception. But a resolution of Council, Feb. 22, 1893, recalled by the Commissioner, showed the unanimity of the aldermen at that time in favor of its exemption.

City Committed to Exemption.

City Committed to Exemption.

It reads thus: "Aid. Crawford, seconded by Ald. Saunders moves that the proposal of Mr. H. A. Massey to erect a music hall on the corner of Shuter and Victoria-streets for the use of the public meets with the approval of this Council, and, with the view of furthering the request of Mr. Massey, be it resolved that the City Solicitor be requested to apply for such legislation as may be necessary to enable the city to exempt the property from taxation; and, further, that the City Solicitor be instructed to co-operate with Mr. Massey's solicitor in preparing the necessary trust deeds for the conveyance of the property, such deeds to be subject to final confirmation by the Council before being executed on behalf of the city."

The motion went to the Legislature, but exemption was defeated by a then city member, Mr. E. F. Clarke. But, in the resolution, Mr. Fleming bases a moral claim for exemption of Massey Hall.

Good Thing in Cemeteries.

There must be a good thing in cemeteries.

There must be a good thing in cemeteries. The St. James' Cemetery Trust, it is said, puts it at $30,000 or $40,000 an acre. That's why Mr. Fleming, who, contrary to rumor, professes still the utmost faith in the value of the park area the city is to acquire by it, feels that the city cannot afford to let alip its opportunity. He thinks the trust could venture the terracing, etc., of the'r own cemetery hillsides at a profit, even should the city refuse to let them bury in the Hoskin property of eight acres, which they would acquire, and so use in pursuance of the endorsation of the agreement which Council has now referred back to pause upon. The trust therefore, in his view, holds cards and spades. The city must move quickly, as they would have it, or not move at all. But does it look as though the trust cares to use the hillsides, when they have waited already one year to get the use of the Hoskin lot at $32,000.

A Fredericton Lady Tells of Her Sickness and Suffering and of Her Restoration to Health by Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

Messrs. T. MILBURN & Co., Toronto,

GENTLEMEN. - A year ago last September my health became much impaired, and I suffered intensely from prostration of the nerves, neuralgic headaches and general debility. The pains would shoot up my neck and down my arms producing numbness and a sensation as if my arms were frozen, so that I almost lost the use of them. My heart would flutter and palpitate; and sometimes I awakened up out of my sleep with a smothering feeling as though I was suffocating!

"Before taking Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills I was almost reduced to a shadow, and felt worn out, irritable, and melancholy. To add to my sufferings a partial paralysis set in, and, though I doctored a great deal, and took many medicines, I received no benefit. How-ever, on trying Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, which I got through Mr. Geo. C. Hunt, our well-known druggist here, their curative powers manifested themselves almost immediately. I could feel every dose doing me good. They seemed to act upon the heart, and stimulate the circulation so that every tissue of my body received its due share of vigor and strength.

"The intense headaches with which I was so frequently afflicted have disappeared, and, instead of being weak, vorn out and run down, I am now in my normal healthy condition.

"I give this testimony for the benefit of these suffering from similar troubles, so that they may know there is a remedy within their reach well worthy of a

JOE ROGERS TO FIND SNELL

A Detective Detailed to Look Into the Disappearance of Brakesman Duncan Snell, Brockville.

The Attorney-General yesterday received a request from Geroge P. Graham, M.L.A., to send a detective to Parry Sound in connection with the disappearance of Brakesman Duncan Snell. It will be remembered to the Disappearance of Brakesman Duncan Snell. It will be remembered to the Disappearance of Brakesman Duncan Snell, Brockville. man Duncan Snell. It will be remembered that Snell disappeared after having a row. His hat and coat were found near Depot Harbor and the people of Brockville, where the missing man formerly lived, are anxious to have the mystery cleared up. Inspector Joe Rogers left last evening for Parry Sound. G. T. R.'s Pretty Card.

The Christmas and New Year's card got out this season by the Grand Trunk is a pretty advertising venture. It shows the interior of a country homestead, with everything in readiness for the arrival of the children from the city. The head of the household sits beside a table with a time-table in his hand, and the aged mother looks out of the window at the approaching train, In a grate a bright fire is burning, while a cat sleeps on a mat and a dog by the side of its mistress. The table is covered with all the good things that make Christmas times so dear.

The Demon Dyspepsia.—in ciden time it was a popular belief that demons moved invisibly through the abient air, seeking to enter into men and trouble them. At the present day the demon, dyspepsia, is at large in the same way, seeking habitation in those who by careless or unwise living invite him. And once he enters a man it is difficult to dislodge him. He that finds himself so possessed should know that a valiant friend to do battle for him with the unseen foe is Parmelee's Vegetable Pills, which are ever ready for the trial. ed

"One of our children has been subject to Croup almost since its birth. Many times we have been at our wits' end for a remedy that would give quick relief, and not until we had procured Griffith's Menthol Liniment did we find a remedy that would accomplish this.
