"CURRIE'S" RAIN-PROOF AT

"THIRD-OFF" PRICES

It isn't often that Currie's garments get a slash in the prices like this—our private reason for doing it is that we've too many—bought too freely—and we're satisfied with a little less than our own money back to clear them out—remember "Currie's" rainproofs are guaranteed good—we're showing them in box back and Chesterfield styles—in blacks, greys and fawns—all with velvet collars—and sizes 34 to 46—

- Regular 5.00 and 6.00 Coats for 3.90
- Regular 7.50 Coats for 5.35
- Regular 8.50 Coats for 6.45
- Regular 10.00 Coats for 7.49
- Regular 12.00 Coats for 9.39

HAMILTON NEWS

GENEROSITY TO A CHURCH

Mr. James I. Buchanan of Pittsburgh, Pa., Presents Building to Mc-Nab St. Church.

JOCKEY CLUB PROPERTY SOLD.

Mrs. Filman Only Went to Visit Her Brother on the Farm—Police and Other News.

Hamilton, Ont., May 20.—(Special)—The members of the congregation of the Mac-Nab Street Presbyterian Church, were this evening made the recipients of a gift so generous in financial proportions, and so kindly in thought, combined with great practicality, that they are the envy of the other city congregations.

The occasion was the 47th anniversary, and the 25th anniversary of Rev. Dr. Fletcher's pastorate. Since the last anniversary, and quite recently, there has been erected to the south of the church a handsome and commodious building, comprising a vestry and a choir room, the gift of the Buchanan family, headed by James Isaac Buchanan of Pittsburgh, son of the late Hon. Isaac Buchanan.

To-night the transfer of the gift took place, and it was that made the congregation happy. After tea had been served James Buchanan was appointed chairman. He called on Angus Buchanan, who presented the regrets of Mr. Buchanan for not being able to be present, and read a telegram from him, in which he, on behalf of the Buchanan family, presented the building and contents to the church, adding his best wishes to the congregation. On motion of Messrs. A. Turner and A. Lott, an appropriate resolution of thanks was passed.

William Turner then tendered the building to the Board of Management, and Donald McPhie, on its behalf, accepted the generous gift and spoke at some length on the goodness and generosity of Mr. Buchanan and his relatives.

Rev. Dr. Fletcher also spoke, adding his thanks, as the gift was made out of personal regard for him.

The building is of stone, is beautifully furnished and complete in every detail. The building and furniture cost $48,000. A concert in the church followed, the performers being Mrs. McArthur, Miss Clara Carey, Miss Edith Carey, Fred Jenkins of Cleveland, Edwin Skedden and J. E. Aldou. It was a success in every way.

lost teeth restored.

Nature's teeth are cleverly counterfeited by modern dental art through Crown and Bridge Work. If you have a prominent front tooth that is broken or decayed the root will be anchored of a new porcelain or gold crown that will restore the lost usefulness and add beauty to the mouth.

If several teeth are missing a light, tiny bridge takes the place of the old-time plate in the mouth and gives a serviceable, durable denture.

The cost (Five Dollars per tooth) is little when figured by years of service and comfort. Let's talk it over.

"The Merchant of Venice."

The Valentine Stock Company has had a run in Toronto of 30 consecutive weeks and has given 30 performances. The good this organization has accomplished in creating a dramatic taste among its patrons cannot be estimated. The various members of the company have made many friends here who will regret that this week is their farewell week.

A play requiring much studying and intelligence; appreciation of the greatest of all dramatists has been chosen as the vehicle with which to say farewell. The popularity of the Valentine Co. was amply evidenced last night by the tremendous crowd that attended the initial performance of "The Merchant of Venice."

The finish of an evening production was not the feature of the performance, but the presentation of the play in its entirety was given with sufficient force and make it worth seeing by the audience.

The play was on a splendid scale, and altogether the actors lived their roles and spoke their lines with conviction and appreciation. Mr. Glazier as Shylock, appreciated by the actors to whom these parts fell.

The Portia of Miss Meta Maynard was a clever bit of acting, proving her undoubted ability to throw much dignity into her manner, and to play the part of a minor born, the cloak of the "Daniel come to judgment."

She was especially effective in her appeal to Shylock, and the hold the house as she uttered the judgment that turned the tables on her money lender.

Miss Anne Blanche as Nerissa had but a minor part in the version of the play presented, but she was well greeted by the enthusiastic audience.

The cast was well selected, and a truly enjoyable series of dramatics. The play runs the whole week with matinees to-day, Thursday and Saturday. There will be a special matinee on Wednesday of "Young Mrs. Winthrop," as a testimonial to Miss Anne Blanche.

Last night's souvenirs of the entire company were given to all who attended the performance. The World recommends the public to go and see "The Merchant of Venice."
