Local Market.

London, Saturday, Nov. 7.

Oats, per bu. 17c to 21 3/4c

Peas, per bu. 33c to 42 1/2c

Corn, per bu. 32c to 34c

Buckwheat, per bu. 24c to 26c

Rye, per bu. 25c to 30c

Barley, per bu. 20c to 22c

Beans, per bu. 50c to 55c

There was a splendid attendance at today's market. All kinds of farm and garden produce were freely offered.

One peculiar feature today was that fully 90 per cent of the grain offered came in and was disposed of before 11 o'clock. This made the early part of the session very busy, and led to the belief that the day's receipts were going to far over-reach any day this fall.

But the rush did not continue, and an hour before the usual time the session was practically at an end as far as grain was concerned. Sellers had the pleasure of receiving about 3c per 100 lbs advance all round for their wheat, $1 33 to 1 45 being the usual prices paid; even some extra good samples of red selling at 1 33 were thin, and dirty. The demand was quite as strong as usual.

Oats met a slight reverse, and sold at fully 2c to 3c per 100 lbs under former values. Best samples of new 3c to 3 1/2c for black, 6c to 6 1/2c for white; lots of light and off-color sold all the way from 5c down to 3c, very few at the latter, however; good old went at 6c to 7c, and the sales at 7c were only occasional.

Peas, when steady, sound and free from bugs, ran all the way up to 74c; the usual price was about 70c.

Corn was scarce and wanted. Dry sold at 30c for yellow Flint. No new corn has offered yet.

Barley was firm at about the same prices as have been current all week. The range was from 42c to 50c, very few lots being good enough to bring the top price.

Buckwheat—None offered. The prices given are based on latest sales.

Beans were dull, more because none offered than in saleable condition. Several lots came on the market, but were much damaged, and had too many bad ones in them to even grade unpecked. The price offered was 50c per bushel, but up till time of writing no sales had been effected.

Butter was slow, and sold at a wider range. The quantity of butter was considerably larger, and this gave buyers the coveted opportunity of being more discreet in their purchases, many lots being graded down that had little wrong with them. Sales by the basket were 13c to 15c, mostly 12c to 14c for pound rolls, large rolls and crocks less.

Eggs were steady at unchanged prices, and in local demand.

Meats were active, and in moderate supply. With one exception, we see no alteration in prices since a week ago. The exception occurs in dressed hogs; in them we note a gain of from 2c to 3c per 100 pounds. Today's sales of choice lots of small hogs were nearly all made at $5 50; $5 25 was paid for poorer, and $5 for heavy and rough, the last kind being hard to sell.

Hay sold slowly at $7 to $8, demand and supply both being light.

The vegetable market was well supplied, as usual, there being an abundance of all seasonable varieties. Sales were a little slow, particularly for potatoes, which brought 30c to 35c by the load, and 40c by the bag.
