BELIEVER IN BETTER SUPPORT OF SOLDIERS AND DEPENDENTS, LOOKS TO LAURIER TO GET IT

Another Prominent Londoner, in Indorsing Cadidature of Geo. S. Gibbons, Labor-Li beral Candidate, Will Trust to Sir Wilfrid to Support Hi s Son at the Front.

In explanation of the question-statement, "Why I am voting for Gibbons," William Heaman, president of the Reform Association of London, says: "I am voting for George S. Gibbons, Labor-Liberal candidate for London, because I consider him to London, because I consider him to be the right man with the right principles and the right platform. were Political Trick.

"Conscription was sprung on the eve of election when the Conservative party was utterly discredited in the country, and in the way it was done, was nothing more nor less than a political trick.

When it was found that Canadians didn't swallow it whole, a follow up trick was tried, this franchise act, which is one of the most dastardly and unjust pieces of business ever perpetrated on a democratic country. What amazes me more than perhaps anything else in connection with it is how a man like Newton Rowell, who has put Mere Political Trick. in connection with R such as put the Newton Rowell, who has put the such a fight for the enfranchisement of women in Ontario, can ally himself with the perpetrators of the unjust act and accept office in a Government that depends large-in a government that depends large-in a government that depends large-Cannot Make Union Government.

concerned a sprinkling of Liberals cannot make it such. At its best it is most undemocratic. This trump card was played when the Conservative Government found itself hopelessly muddled, so hopelessly enmeshed in the follow-up of its own iniquitous deeds that the only way out of the difficulty and possibility of landing back in office was through alliance with the Liberals. A man of Sir Wilfrid Laurier's integrity, which has stood the test of his long public career could not ally himself with men of the calibre of Bob Rogers, and take on himself and followers the crimes on himself and followers the crimes of the Conservative party.

"Personally, I am willing to leave the country to Sir Wilfrid Laurier. He is the one man in this crisis who can give us a united Canada, and if we are to do our part in winning the war we must have a united Canada. We must have a united Canada. We must have it for the future of the nation.

"So far as winning the war is concerned, I don't think any man or woman in London, either is more interested in winning the war than er woman in London, either is more interested in winning the war than I am. I have a personal interest in seeing the war through to a victorious finish. I have a son at the front, and I am willing to trust to Sir Wilfrid Laurier for support for my son and administration of Canada's end in winning the war. "I believe in better support for the soldiers financially, and for their dependents.

"The foregoing are the reasons of the consumpring and will yote why I am supporting and will vote for George S. Gibbons and his plat-form in London, and why I will cast form in London, and why I will cast my vote to place the one man in power who, I firmly believe, can give us a united Canada, and give most efficient service from Canada towards winning the war, Sir Wil-frid Laurier."

COLORED FOSTER MOTHER CARES FOR DESERTED BABE WHICH OFFICIALS BELIEVE IS OF WHITE PARENTAGE

BRIEF SESSION.—The board of control will meet on Friday. There is not a great deal of business to be disposed of, and the session will be brief.

GIVEN ANOTHER STAR. — Lieut. Robert W. Simmie of the 32nd Regiment has been granted the rank of captain in the C. E. F. while holding an appointment with the British-Canadian Recruiting Mission.

"NEVER AGAIN."—Margaret Patterson, a blushing young damsel, who halls from a thriving village located on the Huron and Bruce line of the G.T.R. brown and forever shun the temptations of the city, if she were allowed to go. She was allowed the chance, and upon her future conduct, the magistrate said, depended whether she would again find herself in the embarrassing position of being charged in police court with vagrancy. Margaret smiled, thanked the magistrate, and said, "Never again for mine."

The other day in the portharm cart. as a referendum as to whether more hould be sent forward. The referendum and the recall, they said, were asic principles of trade unionism, and Mr. Sullivan were a true trade nionist he would support them. They sked him if he considered conscription have a great deal of business to be dissected to the crushing of posed of, and the session will be brief. ant as crushing it in France. "Do you think

"?" asked one delegate.
"No," replied Mr. Sullivan.
"Are you going to vote for it?"

"No," again replied Mr. Sullivan mid laughter at this complete reversal of the stand which he had taken a few of the stand which me had accommoments before.

"Where is the great need for men?" asked one delegate, and followed un his question by asserting that there was an army of 116,000 Shornecliffe heroes in England, who had never seen France, and that there were 35.000 in Canada. If the need were so great why were not these being sent great why were not these being sent forward?"
