Prof. Ballantyne. In honor of the late C. Reginald Jamieson a tablet was unveiled at convocation hall yesterday by W. L. Macdonald, president of the federated college association. Mr. Jamieson had been a member of the class of 1905 and a hundred or so of his fellow graduates sembled to pay tribute to his memory. He was prominent in university circles as author of the Junius junior letters, which at a critical time in the history of the university assisted in crystalizing opinion and to a great degree aided in bringing about the happy issue that followed.

Principal Hutton, W. P. McKay and Prof. DeLury spoke and President Falconer took the chair.

> The dejection with which the civic parks committee yesterday received the announcement of Commissioner Wilson that the city has only about $80,000 left wherewith to purchase parks this year is probably shared to a limited extent only by tired taxpayers.

Mr. Wilson submitted a statement showing the following outstanding liabilities: Sea wall contract, $34,442; Kew Beach, Dufferin Park, exhibition properties, $104,753; Arnold-square, $50,975; total, $190,170.36, leaving a balance available of $30,032.32. MISSING WITNESS FOUND.

S. S. Clarke, Who Was Wanted In Civic Enquiry, Turns Up In Alberta.

After a lapse of two years, the civic investigation into city hall contracts is to be concluded next month, S. S. Clarke, chief clerk of Bennett and Wright, who was a very much wanted witness, having been finally unearthed in Calgary, Alberta. chief justice of Alberta has granted an order, whereby Clarke's evidence will be taken in Calgary by a spe-cial commission on July 16. The city's legal department hopes that his testi-mony can be turned to good effect in the city's counter claims against E. J. Lennox and Joseph Wright.

Mr. Clarke, it appears, went first to California, later to Detroit and back again to California, afterwards going to Alberta.
