LEWIS MAY NOT BE CALLED
CROWN NOT SURE OF STORY

Grits Express Opinion That Famous Election Worker's Subpoena Was a Bluff.

The London bribery case went on for a short time yesterday, but nothing new was developed. An adjournment was made until Monday.

It is very unlikely, altho Tom Lewis, now famous in elections, has been subpoenaed, that he will be called. The defence believe that the crown is afraid to put Tom in the box, for fear he will tell too much.

Alex Milne, who acted as deputy returning officer in the by-election 1905, was examined by Mr. Stanton. He admitted that Jerry Collins showed him how to fold the ballots. He had, witness admitted, been drinking.

Ernest A. Larmouth, secretary of the Reform Association in Ottawa, said that he accompanied Mr. White to London. He had no money, nor had he acted as a mysterious stranger.

James Corry, the Ottawa contractor, had been in London during the election while on his way to St. Joseph. He had seen Reid and given him $300 "for legitimate expenses."

"Wasn't it $1000 you gave Mr. Reid?" he was asked, and replied, "I do not think so." It was not an uncommon thing to contribute in this way; in fact, he had done so frequently to both parties.

Asked if he was a Conservative, he replied: "I would not like to say what I am."

FOR THE MISSION FUND.

Toronto Diocese Will Show Up Well, Organizer Says.

Rev. Pierre B. de Lom, the organizing agent for the Toronto Diocese in connection with the movement to present on the part of all the dioceses in the Anglican communion throughout the world and of the American church, a suitable missionary thank offering in St. Paul's Cathedral on June 24 next, states that the prospects in this diocese are decidedly cheering. Besides preaching three sermons every Sunday upon this subject he has addressed conferences in the archdeaconries of Peterboro and Simcoe, as well as the gatherings of the various rural deaneries.

Members of the Women's Auxiliaries are taking a deep interest in the work. The last pan-Anglican congress was held in December, 1902, and the next will open on the 15th and close on the 23rd of next June, and will be followed by a conference between the bishops of the entire church, presided over by the Archbishop of Canterbury. Between these two great and important assemblies this thank offering, which beyond question will be of magnificent proportions, will be solemnly presented in St. Paul's Cathedral.

The offering will be wholly devoted to the prosecution of missionary work throughout the world. No money will be retained abroad or at home will remain in England. Everything will be appropriated to the work in the domestic and foreign missionary fields.

Rev. Mr. de Lom was for some 15 years the organizing secretary of the C.M.S. in the northern part of England.

An Art Exhibition. A great number of the parents of children attending the Queen Alexandra School last evening in the Granite Rink inspected the art work which was recently shown at the art exhibition in this rink. This work is the production of pupils of that school. Addresses were delivered by Miss Semple and Inspector Hughes. This exhibition is an annual event, and was this year unusually successful.

Honors for R. H. Temple. LONDON, Nov. 22.—R. H. Temple, former president of the Toronto Stock Exchange, was yesterday afternoon given a royal reception by the London Stock Exchange.

SHE PATIENTLY BORE DISGRACE

A Sad letter from a lady whose Husband was Dissipated.

How She Cured Him with a Secret Remedy.

I had for years patiently borne the disgrace, suffering, misery and privations due to my husband's drinking habits. Hearing of your marvellous remedy for the cure of drunkenness, which I could give my husband secretly, I decided to try it. I procured a package and mixed it in his food and coffee, and as the remedy was odorless and tasteless, he did not know what it was that so quickly relieved his craving for liquor. He soon began to pick up flesh, his appetite for solid food returned, he stuck to his work regularly, and we now have a happy home. After he was completely cured I told him what I had done, when he acknowledged that it had been his saving, as he had not the resolution to break off of his own accord. I heartily advise all women afflicted as I was to give your remedy a trial.

ONTARIO ENTERS TEAM
IN JOGGING COMPETITION

O.A.C. Students After Spoon Trophy Which They Have Won Twice.

E. Archibald, T. Arkell, L. A. Bowers, R. Hodson and D. A. Mackenzie, representing the Ontario Agricultural College, will go to Chicago in a few days to take part in the annual competition of Agricultural College students in the judging of live stock which will be held at the Chicago stock yards on Saturday, Nov. 30, preliminary to the International Fair Stock Show.

In 1904 the Spoon trophy was offered for the first time for competition by teams of five students representing any agricultural college. Ohio won it that year. In 1905 and 1906 the students of the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, won the prize and brought it home. The trophy will become the permanent property of the college whose team wins it three successive years.

Prof. Day, Dr. Reid and Mr. Wade will accompany the team, and ten or twelve other students members of the senior class, will follow to take part in other competitions in connection with the big show.

Who is the most popular teacher?

The Most Interesting Contest Ever Started.

A discussion not long ago between some young business men who had recently graduated from the public schools, with regard to the popularity of the various teachers under whom they had studied, led to their referring to a friend, Mr. F. E. Karn of the Karm Drug Company for a decision.

Mr. Karn proposed that the matter should be made the subject for a public vote, and accordingly assumed the responsibility of conducting the contest from his store.

There are too many teachers in Toronto, and it is pretty hard for anyone to decide, off-hand, who is the most popular, but this question can easily be settled by a vote of those who care enough about their teachers to express an opinion. With $4,000 pupils, in addition to the thousands of recent graduates, there ought to be some lively voting.

In this voting contest absolute secrecy as to the identity of the voter is guaranteed, if desired.

Particulars of this contest may be had upon enquiry at the F. E. Karn Co. Limited, corner of Queen and Victoria-streets. Full particulars of the contest will be given in their bargain list advertisement Nov. 28.

ICE CRUSHER DAMAGED.

QUEBEC, Nov. 22.—The Canadian Government steamship Montcalm, which grounded yesterday at the new Macdonald wharf on the Saguenay river, is now at anchor at Point Amour. She is making water badly.

CANADIAN TRADE CONDITIONS.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—Bradstreet's to-morrow morning will say: The scarcity of money is the one great drawback to Canadian trade, involving, as it does, a slow movement of the crops to the market, the laying off of industrial employees and the closer scrutiny of credits in many lines.

Canadian banks are calling in all the loans they can, and making few new ones. General trade, especially holiday demand, is good.

Canada's failures for the week number thirty-five, as against forty-five last week and twenty-seven in this week a year ago.

Tone in a Piano.

Tone is one of the first, if not perhaps the most important, elements in the tone of the Heintzman & Co. Piano reaches the highest known standard, while the appearance of the instrument leaves nothing to be desired. This instrument is invariably selected by the greatest visiting artists, to Toronto, Montreal and other large centres. For a high-class Christmas present, one can hardly select anything finer. The ware-rooms are at 115-117 West King-street, Toronto.

CHAMBERS MUSTN'T TALK TILL CHARGES ARE MADE

Counsel Declines to Allow Him to Be First Witness in Enquiry.

A fresh delay in prosecuting the investigation into the park commissioner's department was caused yesterday by the refusal of T. C. Robinette, K.C., counsel for Mr. Chambers, to allow the latter to go into the box, when called upon as the first witness.

The contention was that the commissioner should not be compelled to answer questions which might incriminate him. While Judge Winchester's ruling was that Mr. Chambers could only refuse to answer specific questions, he allowed Mr. Robinette leave to appeal to the high court. Adjournment was afterwards made till 11 a.m. to-day, when other witnesses will be called.

At the opening Mr. Robinette announced that he and Mr. Raney had come to an arrangement for the examination of witnesses in private. Mr. Chambers was then called by Mr. Raney and sworn, but his counsel interposed, saying that Mr. Chambers would refuse to answer any questions at the present stage. He contended that the judge must proceed as in a civil case.

He continued: "The moment there is the least evidence of any misconduct on the part of the defendant, John Chambers, he will be prepared to enter the witness box to explain any such charges and to call witnesses in his behalf."

Mr. Chambers complained that books of the department were missing, cash books prior to 1907 being lacking. "Altho thousands of dollars came into the department we have nothing to indicate it," he complained.

Winchester said he had been informed there were no such cash books, and no books in the sub-departments. Mr. Vickers retorted that there was no need for them.

TERRIBLY SCALDED.

Wade Smith Drenched With Hot Steam.

KINGSTON, Nov. 22.—Wade Smith was horribly scalded at the Cotton Mill to noon. He went to the boiler room to eat lunch, and had just seated himself when a pipe broke and boiling steam enveloped him. He was pulled away. His clothes had to be cut off, and with them came steaming flesh. He is now in the hospital in a critical condition. Smith is an Englishman.

BABIES CUT TEETH ON CERTIFIED CHEQUES

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 15.—The only man in this town whom the financial panic has left untouched is James Whitcomb Riley, and that he is not touched is due to the fact that he has no babies. Just what relation babies had to the panic was not exactly clear, but Mr. Riley has stopped writing poetry and turned enough to give the matter deep thought, and he explained it to the first visitor he saw from the east.

"Suppose the financial trouble has hit you hard?" was the stranger's opening remark.

"Hasn't hurt me," replied Mr. Riley, "because I have never believed in banks. But there is much trouble among the men out here who do. I was charged with burglary. She was locked up in default of $1000 bail for hearing to-day."

"The woman is 23 years old and resides with her parents at No. 142 East 110th-street. She said that after meeting a man on Upper Third-avenue, on Sunday afternoon while returning to her home, she seemed to be under his control."

STRANGE TALE OF HYPNOTISM

Could Not Escape Influence of His Large Dark Eyes.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—A strange tale of hypnotism in which a mysterious man with large black eyes and curly mustache figures, for whom several detectives are searching, was told yesterday by Sarah Deutsch, in the Harlem Police Court, where she was charged with burglary. She was locked up in default of $1000 bail for hearing to-day.

"The woman is 23 years old and resides with her parents at No. 142 East 110th-street. She said that after meeting a man on Upper Third-avenue, on Sunday afternoon while returning to her home, she seemed to be under his control."

"When I looked at his large black eyes I became frightened and obeyed all of his orders," said Miss Deutsch. "He told me to follow him, and I did. I went to the home of Mrs. Langlois of No. 245 Third-avenue, who a few months ago shot and killed her father after he had killed her mother."

"But I'm a stenographer," I ventured. "Spirited," he said. "I like it. You have a pretty hand," and he reached out to take it.

PIMPLES

ALTHOUGH, NOT A DANGEROUS DISEASE, ARE A VERY TROUBLESOME AND UNSIGHTLY AFFLICTION . . .

They are caused by either poverty or impurity of the blood and require the prompt use of a good blood medicine such as Burdock Blood Bitters, for their eradication, which it speedily accomplishes, at the same time strengthening the entire system. Pimples also often arise from dyspepsia and constipation, and in these cases Burdock Blood Bitters has the double effect of removing the pimples together with their cause.

Mr. D. P. Sammon, Oceola, Ont., writes: "I was troubled with pimples all over my face and hands. I paid out money for doctors but they could do me no good. A friend convinced me to try Burdock Blood Bitters, and after using two bottles the pimples vanished, and I have not been troubled with them since."

Burdock Blood Bitters may be procured at all Druggists and Dealers.

MAY SUBMIT A BYLAW FOR FILTRATION PLANT

Controllers Recommend It to Council—Dr. Sheard to Test Water.

The city council will on Monday deal with a recommendation of the board of control that a bylaw be submitted providing that a water filtration plant be installed at the island at an estimated cost of $1,750,000.

Controller Harrison succeeded in having the board of control adopt his proposal as above, after Dr. Sheard had stated that the filtration plant was more important than a trunk sewer. He was given instructions to make tests of the quality of the city's water.

The bills of four engineers brought from the United States to prepare expert evidence in the city's suit against the Toronto Electric Light Co. for damages to water pipes thru electrolysis amount to $7600.18.

BUILD SKYSCRAPER

IN ONE DAY—A FACT

Baldwin, a Civil Engineer, Shows Plans and Says It Can Be Done.

CHICAGO, Nov. 21.—Plans for a mushroom skyscraper that can be built in a day were shown by F. W. Baldwin, a civil engineer, before the annual convention of the American Institute of Architects last night. It shoals up twenty stories while you wait. The principle is "tetrahedral" construction, which Dr. Alexander Graham Bell first utilized.

Baldwin offered to build a skyscraper in twenty-four hours. The idea is not limited to old buildings; they, too, can be created while you move.

On account of the peculiar construction of the tetrahedron, a pyramid, with base and three sides exactly equal, self-folding and superstructure are not lived out his days alone.

WOULD-BE STENOGRAPHER NOT SOMEBODY'S DARLING

Advertisement in a Chicago Paper That Brought a Hundred Replies—Her Experiences.

CHICAGO, Nov. 21.—Miss Julia C. Dunkirk, of Indianapolis, inserted this advertisement in a Chicago newspaper and got 100 replies to-day: "I want to be somebody's stenographer or bookkeeper; not his sweetheart. I have been in Chicago three days answering want ads, and I've had more chances to be 'somebody's darling' than I ever knew existed. If there is a man in Chicago who needs help and would rather have a girl attending to business than making goo-goo eyes, I should like to hear from him. I already have a sweetheart of my own."

Asked about her search for work, the girl, who is pretty, said: "I don't believe so much in chivalry any more. In one office, a baldheaded man, who really looked nice, asked me to be seated."

"Stenographer, I presume?" he began. "Yes, sir," I replied. "Do you live with your people?" he asked.

"My people are not in the city. I am alone." "How interesting!" he said. "I am very much alone myself. My wife doesn't care to go out, doesn't care for theatres or late suppers, and I have a lot of time at my disposal."

"But I'm a stenographer," I ventured. "Spirited," he said. "I like it. You have a pretty hand," and he reached out to take it.

"I escaped and tried the next one."
