NATIVES REVOLT IN ORANGE RIVER COLONY

Wrecked Plant at Vorspoed Diamond Mine-Murders and Outrages Have Increased.

LONDON, Dec. 10 .- An uprising of tive blacks occurred in Orange River ony, when 500 workers at the Vorcolony, when 500 workers at the vorspoed diamond mine revolted and wrecked the plant, then taking up the march towards Kroonstad, where there are only twenty police to oppose them.

While Dinizulu, the Zulu King, who has time and again incited his people to rebel, with the result that murders and outrages have increased, has surrendered, the authorities here are somewhat alarmed over this reported disaffection among the blacks, and some even assent that the incident recorded may be part of a general movement is "South Africa for the Blacks." It is said that one effect of black missionaries coming from America and other places, ostensibly to teach religion, has really been a cloak for the Ethiopian movement, and has cemented all the black population with the object of clearing the whites out of the country.

It is said that the blacks have assumed a new attitude towards the British. They regarded the white man as invincible, and they have contempt for the Boer as a fighting man. They expected the Boer uprising to be stamped out in three weeks. When it took three years, they began to think a little for themselves, and when the natives were paid twice as much for their services as the British soldier they argued that they must be considered as of more importance. diamond mine revolted and wreck-MAY SCATTER QUICKLIME

H. Radcliffe, president, occupied the head of the table, with R. Knowles, first vice-president, James Anderson treasurer, and George Lyons, secretary, on his right and left.

Mr. Radcliffe pointed that that they were the most recent addition to the Retail Merchants' Association and were only about four months old, but had already derived many benefits, especially in getting acquainted with one another. He then called on Mr. Moyer, who represented the Retail Merchants' Association of Canada. He said as far as he knew this was the first time in the history of the world that retailers invited wholesalers and their travelers to a banquet. He explained the aims and objects of the association, and that it was not to enable the merchants to take advantage of the buying public, but rather to enable them to give better service. MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS CURED HER AND SAVED HER LIFE.

There is no one, we imagine, sets about deliberately to do injury to the heart, yet in the excitement and excesses of present-day, living, the nervous system is done violence to, and the heart and nerves seing so intimately bound up with one another, disorganization of the one means disease and disorder of the other.

When you find your heart the least bit when you find your heart the least off out of rhyme, your nerves unhinged, don't wait until you are prostrated on a bed of sickness. Take Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pilla. They'll put you in such condition you'll never know you have a heart, make your brain clear and active, your nerves strong, your blood rich and pure, and your whole being thrill with a new life.
