Ty Cobb Stories

Writers and followers of the Detroit Club who have regularly watched Cobb in action have pointed out that his greatest feats have been achieved against clubs or individual players of championship or individual players of championship calibre. A few of these which have been recorded are:

Scoring from first base on a single and scoring from second on a sacrifice fly to centre field in the same series against the Philadelphia Athletics, who then were world's champions.
Scoring from second base on a play at the expense of Hal Chase, playing first base for New York. Chase thought Cobb would attempt his usual trick of turning third and then returning to third base. Chase, after putting out the runner coming to first, threw to third. Cobb outsuessed him and sprinted home.

In a close game against Boston, Cobb took a long lead off third base. Cobb deliberately stood on the base line until the catcher started his throw. Then he turned and sprinted for third base, but, being "accidentally" hit by the ball, scored, and the catcher was charged with an error.

scored, and the catcher was charged with an error.

Walter Johnson is quite generally referred to as the most effective pitcher in the American League when the game depends upon a single play. An American League umpire delights in telling a story of a close game, when Cobb faced Johnson in one of the last innings. Detroit had the bases filled; two men were out. Cobb, it is claimed, walked toward Johnson, and said:

"Well. Walter, here's the chance both of us have been looking for. Now we can decide who has the most nerve."

Johnson pitched. The lithe body of the Georgian hurled itself forward. The ball flashed to the outfield. Three men scored.

Cobb pulled up at third and poticing ball flashed to the outfield. Three men scored.

Cobb pulled up at third, and, noticing that Johnson seemed rather downcast, used his hands as a megaphone, and, according to the umpire, said:

"Never mind, Walter, old boy. You pitched that ball so fast I never saw it. I just shut my eyes and slammed."

History of Starting Device on Automobiles

NEW YORK, May 8.—Electric starters were tried out on motor cars more than ten years ago, and were discarded on account of lack of demand. This unexpected statement was made by Justice P. Entz, the inventor of the Entz transmission, in the discussion of a paper presented by him to the Indiana Section of the Society of Automobile Engineers tonight. He said that in 1906, when the first Columbia cars appeared with his electric transmission system, they incorporated the electric starting feature, and were so exhibited at the New York show in 1907, shortly before the company failed.

in 1907, shortly before the company failed.

On account of the very much higher quality of the fuel in those days, which was more easily ignited, and the universal use of battery ignition, it was possible to start on the spark most of the time, and starting systems of any sort were not considered necessary, consequently the starting feature was discarded temporarily.

Preliminary to the presentation of the paper, some tests on the Owen Magnetic equipped with the Entz transmission and driven by R. M. Owen, president of the original Owen Company, were run on the Indianapolis speedway by the research

Only slow going was recorded yesterday, including: Tankard, % in 1.22; Audrey Austin, 1/2 in .53; Gentlewoman, % in .37: King K., mile in 1.48; Waukegg, % in .37 2-5: Pampinla, % in 1.07; Tar Brush, ½ in .52; Sir Launcelot, ½ in .55; Billy Trew and Birdland, ½ in original Owen Company, were run on the Indianapolis speedway by the research committee of the Indianapolis Section, S. A. E., and under Charles P. Grimes of the National Company and Chester Ricker of the Stutz Company.

This was followed by a presentation of a paper in the evening by Mr. Entz before 200 members of the section. This paper was entitled "The Electric Transmission on Owen Magnetic Cars," and gave in brief the design and operation of this transmission, together with a presentation of its advantages. ½ in .55; Billy Trew and Birdland, ½ in .52; Miss Fay, ¾ in .39; Gartley, mile in 1.51 2-5; Astrologer, ¾ in .40 2-5; Johnny Harris, ½ in .53 2-5; Secal, ¾ in .52; Sir James, ¾ in 1.22 2-5; Hampton Dame, ¾ in 1.19 2-5; Aimie Leslie, ½ in .52 3-5; Peep Light and Early Light, ½ in .53 2-5; Thorncliffe, ¾ in .54; Banshore, ¾ in 1.08 2-5; Phillstine, ¾ in 1.26, galloping out a mile in 1.57; Late Hours and Echo, 5 furlongs in 1.10.

WOMEN'S GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP.

LEXINGTON, May 8.—Iron Mask, one of the most famous sprinters of all times on the American turf, died here of double pneumonia. He was 8 years old and was by Disguise—Royal Rose. He was bred at Castleton and was owned by the late James R. Keene. Iron Mask had the distinction of having raced successfully in England, United States, Canada, Mexico and Cuba. His winnings on this side of the water total $22,007. In 1913 he set the world's record for si xfurlongs of 1.10 4-5 and reduced that mark to 1.09 3-5 at Juarez the following winter. At Juarez he also set a new American record for five and one-half furlongs at 1.03 3-5. He was well insured. NEW YORK, May 8.—The annual championship of the Women's Eastern Golf Association, to be held this year on the links of the Essex Country Club at Manchester, Mass., on June 5, 6 and 7, will be played off at the rate of 18 holes a day for three days, a total of 54 holes, instead of 36, as in the two previous contests. Mrs. Lawrence Swift, secretary of the association, in announcing the championships, said the title would be decided by medal play, and that there would be a handicap competition each day. First, second and third prizes are offered in the championship tournament.

NEW PACIFIC COAST LACROSSE LEAGUE.

VANCOUVER, May 8.—A new league, to be known as the Pacific Coast Lacrosse Association, was formed at a crosse Association, was formed at a meeting of New Westminster players and financial backers of the Vancouver players. It is proposed to place the franchises in the new league in Vancouver, New Westminster, Victoria, Seattle, Portland and Spokane, and it will be the first international professional lacrosse league on the continent. Ald. Woodside, the principal backer of the Vancouver team, said: "Newsy" Lalonde and "Billy" Fitzgerald and other eastern players might be brought from the east. Last year's Vancouver team is practically intact. The first game will be played on May 24 at New Westminster. Only Vancouver and New Westminster franchises will be operated this year.

TOMATO SHORTCAKE.

Prepare a baking powder biscult dough and roll it about an inch thick, and place it in a pan without cutting it into rounds. Cover it with a layer of ripe, sliced tomatoes, then some butter and sugar. On top of this place a layer of sliced onions, sprinkle with salt and pepper, and cover all with a layer of sliced green peppers

FRIED GREEN TOMATOES.

Select tomatoes that show no signs of turning even yellow, for during the turning process there is a disagreeable acid flavor; cut them in two, pour boiling water over them and sat on the stove where they will keep warm but not cook for about 15 minutes. Then drain and dry with a cloth, dip in egg, then cornmeal, and fry in boiling fat.
