

OFFICERS ELECTED TO LABOR COUNCIL

James Scott is President, William Stevenson Vice-President.

Delegates James Simpson's report from the American Federation of Labor convention, the nomination of officers for the next six months, and the sending of a telegram of congratulation to the victorious labor candidates in Manitoba, were the features of last night's session of the District Trades and Labor Council, at the Labor Temple. The Simpson report from the convention, which concluded last week in Montreal, was lengthy and was in the shape of a general review of the work covered and the resolutions carried.

When the speaker had concluded his report, R. Cox raised the question as to why United States delegates had been so strongly in favor of a republic for Ireland when they expressed themselves as not being free in America. Comrade Simpson explained that this lack of freedom only meant the restrictions on speech of a certain type.

Congratulate Elected.
A motion was carried that a telegram of congratulation be sent to the successful labor candidates for seats in the Manitoba legislature, and also congratulate the voters that province on their vindication of the labor leader now serving full sentences.

The nominations took place early in the evening. James Scott was elected president of the district council by acclamation, and William Stevenson was elected vice-president. The secretary was elected by acclamation. The treasurer was elected by acclamation.
