DISARMING GERMANY

Supreme War Council Completes Main Details of Military Treaty.

Paris, Feb. 22.—Denmark's claims for a portion of Schleswig-Holstein were heard by the supreme council today. H. A. Boinhoft, the Danish minister in Paris, who appeared to represent Denmark, told the council the i northern half of Schleswig-Holstein rightfully belonged, on historical and nationas grounds, to Denmark, but that Denmark was willing to have a plebiscite determine its disposition. ~

While the Danish minister did not make a flat claim for the southern half of Schleswig-Holstein, including the Kiel canal, he said that in justice to the population of this district he believed that it should have the right to determine its possession. The whole lieved that it should have the right to determine its possession. The whole question was referred to a committee.

The action of the council of the great powers in deciding to recognize the present Polish government presided over by Ignace J. Paderewski, has been expected for some time. been expected for some time, as a sequel to the reaching of an accord between all the Polish governments and the strong representations that have been made by the Polish commis-

VIRTUAL CIVIL WAR PREVAILS IN MUNICH

Troubles at Bavaria's Capital Become Serious, Ten Thousand Workmen Marching Thru Streets---People Hear Violent Firing.

London, Feb. 22.—The troubles in Munich took a still more serious turn yesterday afternoon, according to a Copenhagen despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company. Church belis began ringing, 10,000 workmen from the suburbs marched into the centre of the city and a short time later violent firing was heard, it is said. The mob is reported to have begun plundering shops.

The despatch characterizes the conditions now prevailing in Munich evirtually those of civil war.

Hundreds of civilians started to flee from Munich, the Exchange Telegraph correspondent adds, but this movement was stopped when the Spartacans occupied the railway terminus.
