THE LONELY GUARD,

NORMAN INNES,

Author of "The Surge of War" (London Magazine, Evesleigh Month, 1908); "Person Croft" (Evesleigh Month, 1904)

My corporal looked at me inquiringly. "Captain, the door is locked," was all he said.

I reached the handle in the twilight of that gloomy passage, but my lip at this unlooked-for happening, and set my shoulder to the panel. In a moment the door yielded and I lurched forward into a long oak-paneled room, and with my hand upon the door, stood facing two women.

Their manner told of embarrassment, of alarm perhaps. Their cheeks were pale and scarlet by turns, but that summer evening I paid no heed to their surprise. Nor did I make apology, nor crave their pardon for my intrusion. For the moment I had clean forgotten my surroundings. With my fingers upon the edge of the door I stood and gazed at those women, standing with the draught from an open window sweeping cool and lilac upon the Queen. Look you, peace in our castle? Pray Heaven you know it not.

To the utmost of my power I will abate my kingdom's quarrel. Do what thou wilt, rule as thou wilt in this place, never shalt thou win my castle nor my crown. This is the power, to me is the right. Sir Austrian, God judge 'twixt me and thee, and fair fortune to the issue of my cause.

She paused for a moment, it was all but paralysed by the glare from my eyes. Now all this while the Countess Ellen had said not a word, but at her sister's side, her hands crumpling her skirt, her eyes wide with dismay and moist with tears, and I, being mindful of a proverb, yon Solway, turned to leave the chamber. Little credit could I gain by my parley with these ladies, though in other circumstances, an hour spent in their company or preferably with one, might have passed quickly enough.

I bowed in the gloom with my hand upon the handle of the door. "And now, sir," continued the Countess, her voice a tremble. "Leave me and my sister; may they stay as short, and ill thy days in it."

Dr. Allan H. Hobson, son of Thomas H. Hobson, superintendent of the St. John Baptist church of Detroit, to accept a professorship in the University of Chicago.

THE POLICE St. John, March 15. Sir,—My attention was called to an article in your journal relating to a remark made by our police magistrate, in which he made the startling assertion that there were not on the police force any who were men of a case where he committed a woman for perjury, or for retracting a statement she had previously made.

Now I was castellan of Rohn, under the seal of Her Imperial Majesty, and on the evening of my arrival was in a humor to abate the privileges of my office. None the less I spoke with what calm I could assume, and with all deference to those strange, whose presence the ladies of Rohn had not said a word.

"Madam, pardon my lack of ceremony, but I have a duty to perform, having been sent to occupy this castle with my troops in the Queen's name. Nor," I added, scarce knowing what to say further, "did the Countess tell me that I had the honor of having other ladies beneath my charge."

AN EATING ULCER. Ulcers are a skin disease, and are more or less directly occasioned by a bad state of the blood, which produces scalds, boils and corrupts the secretions.

Through its wonderful cleansing, purifying powers on the blood, and its renovating action on the entire system, Burdock Blood Bitters has made thousands of cures of different skin diseases during the past thirty years it has been on the market.

Mrs. Joseph Robinson, Hallerton, Que., writes: "I had an eating ulcer on my ankle. I took two bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters and it worked like a charm, cleaning out all the impurities from my system and improving my appetite. While taking the B.B.B. internally I used it externally to cleanse the sore, and it helped a lot."

Ripe Florida Oranges by the box. Telephone 676, J. S. Gibbon.

People are waking up to the importance of the fact that the actual building of the Grand Trunk Pacific through the province has been commenced, and the great possibilities for the development of business in Queens County are being recognized by all who are aware of the central location of these mines.

Special attention is directed to The Floods Company's advertisement on this page. This firm is having a clearance sale of all their choice goods, as their stock must be moved, and they are taking this method of reducing the same. They are offering a reduction of price in many instances, which is equal to 25 per cent on all their choice cut glass and sterling silver.

In fact in every department the discounts are not less than 25 per cent, and range up to 60 per cent. In the household requisites, such as toilet soap, note paper, and envelopes, they are offering a special clearance price. This is an opportunity that does not often occur, and we advise that our readers take advantage of the same.

How Zam-Buk Cured a Bad Knee.

Mrs. S. F. Nicholls, 208 Queen St. Montreal, writes: "While returning home from a shopping tour, I slipped on the icy sidewalk and badly sprained my knee. I had to be assisted to the house where I was laid up for two weeks. My knee was very much swollen and painful. I bathed the injured member frequently with liniments I had in the house and they were not much good, so I sent for a box of Zam-Buk, as I had used this previously for cuts and burns and knew its value. For three weeks I used the Zam-Buk as an embrocation and it worked like a charm, taking away all stiffness, swelling and soreness. I am now able to go about all right and have never felt the effects of my accident since."

ZAM-BUK CURES cuts, bruises, burns, bad legs, running sores, eczema, boils, eruptions, scalp sores, itchy piles, chapped hands and all diseases of the skin, as an embrocation for rheumatism, sciatica, sprains, etc. Zam-Buk is without equal.
