SEARCHERS FOR DEAD FIND LIVING VICTIMS

Persons Who Have Lived Buried Under the Ruins of Messina for Two Weeks Rescued Alive—Another Earthquake Shock Felt in Stricken City.

Messina, Jan. 11.—Search for the buried victims Italy's great earthquake continues and is rewarded with the rescue of the living. Yesterday noon a man named DeSaga, who had spent 14 days without food, locked in the ruins of his home, was taken out unconscious and resuscitated. He had been caught in a kind of straight jacket formed by the debris, and, unable to move, was compelled to watch the lingering death of his wife and four children. Saturday a married couple were removed from a natural tomb, not only living but conscious. Their imprisonment had lasted 15 days.

On Saturday night a terrific tremor accompanied by earthquake shocks arose, causing a number of fresh collapses in the ruins and spreading new terror among the survivors. Most of the people in Messina were camped under tents and huts and nearly all were sleeping. Overed by the wind and blinding rain. Overed by the wind and blinding rain. Overed by the wind and blinding rain.

Professor Salinas has succeeded in saving from the ruins of the civic museum several valuable paintings, including the famous Triptich by Antonio Da Messina of 1363. General Mazza in his report to the premier yesterday said that the recovery of valuables stolen from the ruins was progressing satisfactorily. Seven thieves were arrested Saturday.

"KLONDIKE KING" PUTS THE BLAME DEAD IN YUKON

Alex. McDonald Born in Nova Scotia Died of Heart Disease—He Was the Richest Man in the Yukon.

Vancouver, B. C., Jan. 11.—(Special)—A private telegram from Dawson announces the sudden death of "Big Aleck" McDonald, known as the "King of the Klondike." McDonald was struck with heart failure at Clear Creek while splitting wood in Nova Scotia. Mr. McDonald reached the scene of the big find in 1896 when Dawson was in the height of its prosperity. Mr. McDonald owned half of the townsite, and was worth five million. He met later with misfortunes, but rose superior to them and at the time of his death was rated the richest man in the Yukon.

A MURDER MYSTERY

Asbury Park, N. J., Jan. 10.—Four arrests were made today concerning the death of Mrs. Sarah Custerlin, 37 years old, whose body burned about the face and breast, was found in the kitchen of her home at Neptune City today. The burns on the body were not sufficient to have caused death, but close examination is said to have shown that the woman's skull was fractured. The arrests were made at the death woman's two daughters, Rose V. Layton, twenty-six years old and Marie Gunson, thirty-seven years old and two young men, James Layton and Ervin Hoffman. They are being held while the police are investigating the circumstances of the woman's death. The arrests were made at the Custerlin residence, when arranged in court today, the four prisoners denied all knowledge of the cause of Mrs. Custerlin's death.

FRANCE RETURNS TO GUILLOTINE SYSTEM

First Capital Punishment Seen in France for Years Was Inflicted Today—Four Murderers Went to Death Under the Knife—A Terrible Scene.

Bethune, Pas de Calais, France, Jan. 11.—The first inflictions of capital punishment in France for a number of years past were witnessed in this town today when four murderers were decapitated by the guillotine. The executions were public and took place in the presence of a large crowd. The record of crime against the four men was a long one. Working together they formed a band which had terrorized Northern France and Southern Belgium for several years, robbing, assassinating and murdering at will.

LOST HIS BRIDE ON WEDDING DAY

Wedding Bliss Was of Short Duration for John Gillespie of North End.

Matrimonial troubles came soon for John Gillespie, of Sheriff street, for it was on his wedding day that his wife parted from him. It was the 22nd of December that John Gillespie and Ada Burke were married by Rev. Neil McLaughlin. The girl is a daughter of Dennis Burke, of City Road, and both she and her husband were employees of the Cornwall and York Cotton Mills Company. But wedded bliss had hardly dawned when, according to Gillespie, the parents of the girl, whose age is given as 25, took a hand. She went to her home to procure some clothing, after the wedding, and has been there ever since. Gillespie tells that it was the parents' demand that he pay her board, but this he would not do. He says, however, that he had rented a room, in which, he intended that she should reside. After writing her today for her return he has abandoned her.

ONE GIRL SLAYS ANOTHER

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 10.—"I held her love until that young man slept between my arms," declared Anna Rubinswicz, twenty-three years old, shortly before she died at a hospital tonight after she had shot and probably fatally wounded Bertha Yablowsky, twenty-two years old. Until recently when Miss Yablowsky became acquainted with a young man, the two girls were close friends. Miss Rubinswicz went to Miss Yablowsky's house, drew a revolver from beneath her cloak, and shot her friend and herself. Miss Rubinswicz left a note, showing that she had been brooding over the strangeness of her friend.

ANTI-TOXIN DISCOVERED FOR CONSUMPTION BACILLUS

Discovery by Dr. Rosenbergh, of the Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, Makes Men Immune to the Germs of Consumption.

Philadelphia, Jan. 11.—By official announcement the greatest discovery in the war against tuberculosis bacillus by Koch was made public. This is the discovery by Dr. Randle C. Rosenbergh, famous biologist and holder of the chair of bacteriology at Jefferson Medical College, that the tuberculosis germ can be readily found in the blood long before it reaches the lungs; that it is then in a condition which makes it catch fresh air, and that it will soon be possible to use an antitoxin which will stamp the disease out.

NEWS FROM FREDERICTON

Stenographer Suing City of Fredericton for Wages for Work Done—A Liquor Case.

Fredericton, N. B., Jan. 11.—(Special)—The case against R. Z. Walker, Station master of the Intercolonial, charged with receiving and storing liquor at the freight shed here was taken up in the police court this morning, but at the request of Peter J. Hughes, who appeared for the railway, was stood over until this afternoon. E. McLaughlin, K. C., of St. John, was in court, but took no part in the proceedings. The action was brought in connection with a quantity of liquor seized short time ago.

On account of the soft weather the Fredericton curfew have been obliged to abandon their proposed trip to Campbellton and Chatham for the present. Four railway navies were found intoxicated near the Baptist church last evening and arrested. They were fined eight dollars each this morning.
