

Dr. Scadding, was read before a large audience. The address traced back at length, memories of old York, and historic events associated with the careers of our ancestors to the close of the last century.

Mrs. S. A. Curzon and Capt. Blain, of the Peel Society; F. F. Fearman, of Hamilton; Sheriff McKellar, of Wentworth, and the Rev. Canon Bull, of Niagara, each addressed the assembly, going over a large amount of historical matter.

The following papers were read by members at the monthly meetings:—"The Life and Times of Hamilton Merritt, the Elder," by Mr. Chas. Durand; "The Maple Leaf as an Emblem of Canada," by the Rev. Dr. Scadding; "History from Odd Corner," by Mrs. S. A. Curzon; "A Patriotic Poem on the Battle of Queenston Heights," by E. M. Morphy; "The Life and Times of Robert Gourley," by Chas. Durand; "Echoes of the Past," by D. B. Read, Q. C.

At the Industrial Exhibition in September, 1891, the log cabin was crowded with visitors as usual, notwithstanding that the approaches thereto were obstructed by a besieged city.
