U. S. AGREES TO WAIVE INTEREST

Foregoes Premium Payment for $171,000,000 Loaned Belgium

Country is Given Sixty-two Years to Pay Obligations.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18—All interest charges on money actually loaned to Belgium during the war with Germany will be foregone by the United States under terms of an agreement for the funding of the Belgian war debt to the United States reached today between the United States debt commission and Belgian representatives.

The United States Commissioners, with the approval of President Coolidge, agreed to allow Belgium to pay back to the United States $171,000,000 loaned during the war over a period of 62 years without interest. The balance of the debt, approximately $246,000,000, which was loaned after the armistice, will also be paid back over a period of 62 years with some remission of interest charges. An interest rate of 3 1-2 per cent. after the first ten years was agreed upon for this part of the debt.

MORAL OBLIGATION.

The United States Commission, announcing the terms, explained that "a weighty moral obligation" attached to the United States in the matter of settling the Belgian debt by reason of proposals accepted by President Wilson at the Versailles Peace Conference.

The United States commission refused, however, to accept a Belgian proposal that payments from Germany under the Dawes plan should be used to meet the Belgian account.

Human Life Expectancy Increases Twelve Years

EDINBURGH, Scotland, Aug. 19—The life expectancy of a baby in England today is 12 years longer than was that of the child's grandparents.

Greater participation by large numbers of the people in open-air games and sports, better and more suitable dressing, better food, and the advance of the science of medicine and surgery is adding materially to the length of human life. So declared Sir George Newman, Chief Medical Officer of the Ministry of Health, in an address here before the Royal Institute Congress.

WHAT GERMANY HAS PAID.

LONDON, Aug. 19—Mr. Guinness, financial secretary to the treasury, told the House of Commons that the total payments by Germany in cash or kind, distributed by the Reparation Commission between the Allied Powers on account of reparation, up to June 20 was approximately $750,000,000. The allocation to the British Empire was $125,000,000, of which the share of the United Kingdom was approximately $110,000,000.

MODERN PICTURES BRING GOOD PRICES

LONDON, Aug. 19—When the hammer fell at Christie's a few days ago on the last lot of a two-day sale of pictures left by the late John Sargent in his studio well up to $1,000,000 had been realized. There was much interest.

The first 168 pictures brought more than $720,000; a further 60 pictures, with about a dozen copies by Sargent from old masters, brought the figure up to $890,000, the rest was paid for works by other artists in Sargent's collection.

An original Sargent, "A Bedouin Chief," brought $17,500. More than $5,000 was paid for another Bedouin study.

But the feature of the bidding was $31,500 (Van der Niehl) for Sargent's copy of the head of the little boy, Prince Balthazar Carlos, after Velasques, on a canvas 20½ in. by 26½ in., easily a record for a copy.

Messrs. Agnew paid $7,000 for a fragment of a Franz Hals group, copied in Haarlem, and $9,500 for a reduced version of Las Hilanderas (The Spinners, or Tapestry Weavers), by Velasquez.

Of the pictures in Sargent's collection by other artists a small figure piece by Corot was sold for the highest price, $6,000. A French dealer paid $4,400 for a landscape of Bordighers, by Claude Monet. A sketch of Joe Childs, the jockey, by Sir John Lavery, went for the surprisingly low figure of $170.

LIFTING GERMAN FLEET.

LONDON, Aug. 19—Salvage work on the scuttled German fleet at Scapa Flow progresses steadily. Messrs. Cox & Danks lifted the G. 40 recently, bringing the number of destroyers raised to 16. Sixty-three vessels have been raised by them this month.

There are only three more destroyers of this type, weighing 750 tons, to be salved. The remaining seven destoyers weigh 1,300 tons.

PEREDEAU TO VISIT ISLAND.

QUEBEC, Aug. 18—Hon. Narcisse Peredeau will leave Quebec Tuesday for Newfoundland on board the steamer Nawarit. He will return to Quebec on Aug. 29. Madame McKenna, his daughter, is accompanying him.

NOTICE

The annual general meeting of the shareholders of the New Brunswick Publishing Company, Limited, will be held in the head office of the company, Canterbury street, Saint John, N. B., on Thursday, August 20, at 10.30 a. m., Atlantic daylight time.
