

22 CANDIDATES IN FIELD FOR FEDERAL HONORS IN PROVINCE

Straight Contests in All N. B. Constituencies Except in Victoria-Carleton, Where Woman Independent Opposes Conservative and Liberal-Progressive

THE first woman ever nominated in New Brunswick for the House of Commons has tossed her headgear into the ring with the derbies and fedoras of the 22 men candidates for federal honors. She is Mrs. Minnie Bell Adney, who was nominated at Woodstock yesterday to run in Carleton-Victoria as an independent candidate. Mrs. Adney's agent is Helen McGibbon who put up the necessary $200 deposit required of the aspirants for political distinction.

With the entry of a woman into the contest came the departure of a man, namely James Robinson, of Millerton, who had signified his intention of running as an independent Conservative in Northumberland but who yesterday announced that, at the request of Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, leader of the party, he would retire. This leaves just one three-cornered fight, in Carleton-Victoria, where Mrs. Adney is opposing T. W. Caldwell, Liberal-Progressive, and Hon. J. K. Flemming, Conservative. In all other constituencies there are straight party fights.

23 CANDIDATES.

Twenty-three seekers after the 11 seats to which the province of New Brunswick is entitled in the House of Commons of Canada were nominated yesterday, nomination day. In many of the constituencies there were public meetings in connection with the formal proceedings and the candidates gave addresses.

A misunderstanding regarding the arrangements for Charlottetown made the meeting at St. Andrews a one-sided affair. The report had gone abroad that there would be no speaking and, as a result, W. A. Holt, the Liberal candidate, was not present. His opponent, R. Watson Grimmer, however, gave an address.

SPECIAL TRAIN.

A special train over the International Railway brought many from Madawaska and along the International Railway to hear the candidates, Hon. Pius Michaud, Liberal, and Arthur Culligan, Conservative, speak at Campbellton. There was a big meeting at Bathurst, where J. G. Robichaud, the Liberal standard-bearer, and J. B. Hachey, the Conservative, gave addresses. At Newcastle Charles E. Fish, the Conservative standard-bearer, and F. M. Tweedie, the Liberal, spoke and at Richibucto the Kent county opponents, Louis Robichaud, Government, and A. J. Doucet, Opposition, spoke.

MERELY FORMAL.

There was no speech-making at Dorchester in connection with the Westmorland county proceedings, neither was there any at Woodstock for Carleton-Victoria, nor at Fredericton for York-Sunbury. Only four people were present at the ceremonies in the capital. At Hampton, however, Geo. B. Jones, the Conservative candidate, and Dr. D. H. McAllister, the Liberal, addressed the crowd.

SECRET OF HAPPINESS

The greatest menace on earth to happiness is the ill health with which so many women are afflicted. The young woman is subject to pain and irregularities, the mother to the tortures of displacements with consequent pains, aches and nervousness—the middle aged woman to the uncomfortable conditions caused by this critical age. The one remedy to control these conditions and restore the system to a normal healthy condition is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which for fifty years has been restoring sick and ailing women to health and happiness.

Delicious Castor Oil inspires many, letters like this

Dear Mister Kastor Jems

WHEN I was sick last week, Mummy wanted me to take some horrid castor oil. But I cried and Daddy said: "I know what'll make her better". So he went to the drug store and bought me the loveliest candies. He called them Kastor Jems. Course I ate one and now I'm all better. Mummy says it was a castor oil candy, but I wish I could have one every night.

Dorchester Lad Dies After Shooting Mishap

DORCHESTER, Oct. 22.—Succumbing to shock and the effects of injury in an accidental shooting, Walter Miller, 11 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller, died at the Moncton City Hospital at 9:30 this evening. The boy was shot just above the knee, while he and his chum, Robert Hickman, aged 13, were playing with a shotgun which was accidentally discharged.

Dr. Teed was hastily called and rendered first aid. The serious nature of the wound was realized and the injured boy was taken by automobile to the Moncton City Hospital, accompanied by his mother, Dr. Teed and W. E. B. Tait. He was unable to rally from the shock, however, and death followed about nine hours after the accident.

"Then, I Learned How to Shave."

"I had developed the habit, like lots of fellows, of shaving year after year with the same old 'safety'."

"I was out camping with a chap who used a Valet AutoStrop Razor and was very enthusiastic. 'Just try it,' he urged."

"Results! What a difference! It is all in the stropping, I learned."

"I'll never go back to the ordinary 'safety' because I'll never be content with the blade giving only a few shaves, the blade getting duller with every shave. Believe me, those two weeks convinced me that I had been in a rut as far as shaving is concerned."

This is the experience of many men. Maybe you are in a habit rut. Have you tried the Valet AutoStrop Razor which automatically sharpens its blades without removal—cleans too, without removal?

Why keep to old fashioned ways? Just try a Valet AutoStrop Razor. Note its superiority.
