TO LET—Upper flat, 57 Charlotte street, at present occupied as a tailor shop. Mrs. Bay Natal, a well-known business woman, was sandbagged into insensibility and robbed of $1,200 worth of diamonds and several hundred dollars in cash. She has for several days been in the hands of doctors, a victim of the most daring and cunningly planned robbery ever known in this city. It is believed that the band of thieves in which both women and masked men were operating were after bigger game and expected to trap Mrs. Natal at 4 p.m. time when she might be wearing a good deal more of her $100,000 worth of diamonds. That Mrs. Natal was not killed outright is due only to the fact that her hat softened the blow of the sandbag.
