

CUMMINS GOT HIS TOILET ARTICLES AND STANDS PAT

Mexican Government Declares He Must Leave or be Expelled. AN OFFICIAL NOTE

The Diplomatic Corps Hope for Peaceful Solution of the Affair.

(United Press.) Mexico City, June 17.—Peaceful settlement of the dispute between Cummins, British diplomatic agent, and the Mexican Government appeared in prospect today.

The diplomatic corps met at the British legation and held a long discussion of the case, causing a report that the diplomatic corps will advise Cummins to ask for his passports and leave peacefully in compliance with the demand of President Obregon.

Cummins was still barricaded in the legation this morning, with detectives and gendarmes patrolling the streets around the building. The Union Jack floated defiantly over the legation building. A man servant and a woman attendant who left the legation yesterday were not allowed to return.

The government, however, did permit Cummins a razor and a tooth brush, after intervention by the British Consul-General, who delivered the toilet articles in person to the embattled envoy. The consul said he also managed to take in a cake of soap and other articles that Cummins had asked for. Telephone service was still cut off, however, and water was allowed only a few hours a day.

Cummins locked himself in the legation last week when the Government ordered him to leave the country because of alleged intervention in Mexican affairs.

Publication of Prime Minister MacDonald's statement in the House of Commons yesterday, in which he said the British Government considered Mexico's action a grave breach of international courtesy, was the only reply he made to the Mexican Government's feeble attempt to justify its rights.

The Mexican Side. Mexico City, June 17.—A brief note issued by the Foreign Office in regard to the Cummins incident says:—"To show the presidential sentiments of the Mexican Government regarding the case of the British subject, Cummins, our Foreign Office, giving an example of the highest consideration for the diplomatic corps, has decided to wait a short period for the result of amicable efforts by the British minister for the British Government in order for Cummins to leave. Failing Cummins' departure after a prudent period, the order of expulsion will be enforced."

GERMAN PARTY IN ST. JOHN TODAY. Hundred Here on the Way to Western Canada for Farm Work.

A party of about 100 Germans, including men, women and children, arrived in this city this morning from Halifax, where they disembarked yesterday from an ocean liner. The party is made up of all ages, and from their appearance are representative of various modes of German life. Many of the men appeared party in civilian dress while the remainder of their attire smacked strongly of the military. The cavalry boots and trousers were strongly in evidence.

Railway officials said today at noon that the party were en route to different parts of western Canada, where they would locate, going in for farming. This is the first party of Germans from "the Fatherland," to pass this way since probably before the war. They will leave St. John by today's Montreal train en route west. Most of the women spent the day in the waiting room of the station, while the men strolled about the city and made small purchases, constituting for the most part of eatables.

MAGNA CHARTA

In referring to Magna Charta in Knox Church on Sunday, Rev. R. Moorhead Legate said:—"James Anthony Froude says that one lesson, and one only, history may be said to repeat with distinctness, that the world is built somehow on moral foundations; that in the long run it is well with the good; in the long run it is ill with the wicked. The oppressions and exactions of a tyrannical sovereign, John of England, drew from him at the demand of his long-suffering subjects the Great Charter, the signing and sealing of which is being commemorated throughout the English-speaking world today. This document not only righted a set of wrongs prevalent at the time, but set the pace for the liberty of the subject and the protection of his life and property from all arbitrary spoliation."

"And out from Magna Charta history has repeated itself down to the Hon. Walter G. Mitchell, at a convention held in the division tonight.
