

the profits to be equally divided between that gentleman and the Society, which resulted in the addition of $21.65 to the funds of the Society.

OFFICES.

The lease of the offices expired on the 12th of last July, and your Committee obtained a renewal of the lease for one year at a reduction of $50 per annum.

It will thus be seen that the Society is in a substantial, healthy condition, and from its usefulness to the English residents, and new comers who need its aid, commends itself to the support of such of our fellow countrymen as are possessed of the means wherewith to do so.
