REGULATIONS FOR FACILITATING THE SALE OF Crown Lands TO ACTUAL SETTLERS.

Passed in Council, Dec. 9, 1856.

1. In order to promote the settlement of New Brunswick, Tracts of Land, of unimproved and good quality, will, as required, be surveyed and set apart in different parts of the Province for actual settlement.

2. These Tracts will not exceed ten thousand acres each. They will be divided into lots of one hundred acres, as near as may be, and will be selected with reference to their fitness for cultivation, their proximity to existing Settlements, and the facilities for reaching them by roads from the nearest Highway.

3. After a tract is selected for settlement, and surveyed, the lots therein will be sold in conformity with the following Regulations, and upon the conditions hereinafter expressed.

4. All the lots in each tract selected, after due notice in the Royal Gazette, will be exposed to sale at Public Auction, by the local Deputy for the District in which such tract is situated, at the upset price of two shillings and six pence currency, per acre. Not more than one hundred acres will be sold at Public sale to any one purchaser. The purchase money must be paid at once to the local Deputy, on production of his Receipt for the same to the Emigrant Agent for the District, a Location Ticket in the form annexed, will be granted to the purchaser. The lots for which no bid is made, will be struck off, at the upset price, to the Emigrant Agent for the District, as the purchaser for the time being.

5. A Diagram of the lots struck off to the Emigrant Agent for the District, will be sent to the local Deputy, and he shall be authorized to dispose of such Lots. Any person wishing to become an actual settler may, on application to the Emigrant Agent, in the form annexed, purchase from him, at private sale, not more than one hundred acres, or less than fifty acres, at the upset price.

6. The purchaser at private sale shall forthwith pay the whole of the purchase money into a Bank, or Branch Bank, or to the Deputy Treasurer for the District, as may be directed by Order in Council, to the credit of the Receiver General. Upon lodging the Receipt for the same with the Emigrant Agent, the purchaser will receive from him a Location Ticket, in the Form annexed.

7. In every case the purchaser must take actual possession of the land purchased, within thirty days after the date of his deposit receipt. He must clear at least five acres of his Lot, and build a House thereon, and he must reside at least three months in such House, all within one year from the time of purchase.

8. The House shall not be less than eighteen by twenty feet. It may be of logs, of such description as may be put up in four days by five men.

9. If a family comprising several Settlers, prefer residing on a single Lot, they will be exempted from the obligation of building and residence, except upon the Lot on which they choose to live. But no family shall hold more than fifty acres of one hundred acres each, and shall make the requisite amount of clearing on each Lot they purchase.

10. No Grant will be made of Land purchased under these Regulations, until after the expiration of one year from the date of purchase, and not until the foregoing conditions are fulfilled, and a certificate of non-fulfilment of the purchase money will be forwarded, and the Land declared open for sale.

11. At the expiration of one year from the date of purchase, it shall be the duty of the Emigrant Agent to ascertain, by personal inspection, or otherwise, whether the conditions of sale have been fulfilled. If they have not been fulfilled, he will immediately report the same to the Surveyor General, who, if they have been fulfilled, he will grant a Certificate in proof to the purchaser. Upon production of such Certificate to the Surveyor General, a Grant of the Land, under the Great Seal, will issue to the purchaser, free of expense.

12. Each Tract selected for settlement under these Regulations will receive a distinct guiding notice. When one has thereof is sold to Settlers, another tract will be offered for sale in the like manner.

13. Land of Churches and Schools will be reserved in each Tract, in convenient situations for the Settlers.

14. A Road will be made at the public expense, from the nearest highway, to and through each of the Tracts selected, and set apart, under these Regulations.

15. The sale of Lands under these Regulations, in the Tracts selected for settlement, is not to interfere with the sale of other vacant Crown Lands, as at present, under the existing Regulations.

SCHEDULE.

QUEEN'S and CHARLOTTE.

"QUEEN'S."—This tract consists of 9,000 acres, about fifteen miles from the mouth of the Nepesic River, between the Queen's Lake and the South Oronto Lake, partly in Queen's, and partly in Charlotte County. It is divided into 91 Lots, intersected by several small Lakes. The numbers are 1 to 48 inclusive, South division, excepting Lots 12 and 30, already located; and numbers 33, 35, 37, 39, 41, 43, 45, 47, and 49 to 86 inclusive, to the North Division, omitting Lot 68, now located.

REMEDY FOR BURNS.

We know of nothing better to apply to wounds caused by burns than the tincture of the stinging nettle (Urtica urens). Any person can prepare it, by taking the whole plant, rubbing it in a piece, and the putting it into alcohol, letting it stand for a few days in a cool place. No matter how severe the burn may be, cover the wound with a linen cloth soaked in this tincture, and notwithstanding it may aggravate the pain for a few minutes, it will soon disappear, and but little soreness will be felt afterwards.

CORN.

The best cure for these troublesome things that we have tried, is to soak the kaffir hot water for a quarter of an hour, so that the corn becomes soft, and then trim it off as far as possible, and not cause pain. Then take the tincture of the Arbor Vitæ, placed upon a little cotton, and apply to the corn, and after a few applications the corn will not only disappear entirely, but will not be likely to return again.

We gave a few days since a statement of the finding of a human body at Rouse's Point, in a barrel, and cut up. It turns out that a young French doctor had stolen the body from the Assiniboine burying ground, for scientific purposes. (Quebec Chronicle.)

Peter Nassau, a colored man, now a resident of Woodstock, Vt., has reached the extreme old age of 120 years, being probably the oldest man now alive on the American continent. (Ill.)

THE NEWS BOYS' ADDRESS TO THE PATRONS OF THE Standard.

Kind Patrons and good Friends the News Boys here wish you health and happiness by day and night, and sweet rest by night, and happiness by day. Since last with grateful hearts we have parted, the Standard has been a dear friend to us. How many a face has beamed into clay, how many a hope, high cherished, has been laid in grief's brightening into bliss—how many a young man's time for mirth and glee, and while the year is young, and the year is young, away with lonely thought—the Freeman's dwell on my fond tongue. Time is just as busy as a bee, he never stops to rest—oh he—And now you get with true progression, he slides along in quick succession. With all that's said and all that's done, beneath the spirit of the pen. And then our pressmen with their bolting, their pens, and types, and other odd things, are hurried on from day to day; With scarce an hour of rest or play; Now filling up their vacant columns, selecting, editing, and auditing. Reviewing, penciling, and writing, while I, your very humble servant, of all the process still observant. At every week's task's conclusion, receive the whole for distribution. Attempting by our joint endeavours, to do the business of your favours. And put the news in circulation.

New Brunswick, had! where under British sway.

We live secure and generous laws obey, free from arms—protection by her side, and wholesome industry their friend and guide. Here fertile fields arise where forests frowned, here perseverance with plenty crowned. Here commerce opens up her stores, and spreads her sails. Here endless shoals of busy tribes prevail, here arts, mechanics, and productive trade, lay open means of wealth to every grade.

Long may our progress happily speed on! Attached sincerely to the British throne, may we avoid all cause of just offence, but guard our rights with boldness, truth and sense.

Nor must we leave ST. ANDREWS out, while dwelling on this theme, for now we've got a RAILROAD here, and 'tis a mighty scheme.

And now to all a bye the NEW YEAR, With mirth and health and wholesome cheer.

A TERRIBLE TRAGEDY.—On the 12th inst., a bloody tragedy was enacted at Montmouth, Illinois. A Mr. Fleming and his two sons called upon Mr. Crozier, at one of the hotels, each armed with loaded pistols, to force the latter gentleman into a transaction of a calumny affecting a daughter of Mr. Fleming. After some parley this was effected, when the elder Fleming withdrew from the room and stood at the door, with a pistol in his hand to prevent interference with what was to follow. One of the younger Flemings then placed a pistol to Crozier's head, while the brother proceeded to horse whip him. When three or four blows had been struck, Crozier drew a dagger and succeeded in stabbing to the heart both the Flemings, and they died almost instantly. Crozier, who was engaged to the lady in question, surrendered himself for trial. The Flemings are said to be highly respectable farmers.

There is no end to the good things told of Lamb, Charley Lamb, as every body loves, to call the gentle Elia. He and his sister Mary lived snugly at No. 4, Inner Temple Lane, and often had a friend dropping in to spend a social evening. On such an evening it chanced that they were disturbed by the whining of a dog, which had attracted Lamb's attention that day, and as it was starting, he ran about in home, barked and howled in the back yard. Charley was chatting away when Mary interrupted him by crying out, "What is it, Mary, the dog?" "Oh, he is enjoying himself."

"Enjoying himself, Charles?"

"Yes, Mary, yes just as much as he can on wine and water."

"A Rich Story.—A tall, well-looking chap just from the Green Mountains of Vermont came on board one of the splendid North River boats at Albany. The curiosity of the passengers was attracted, and he commenced speaking, and he entered into every hook and corner of the boat. The captain's office, the engine room, the water closet, the barber's shop, all underwent his inspection, and then he went on deck and stood in amazement at the never-beam, the chimney, and the various things, till at last he caught sight of the cabin. This was the crowning wonder, and he viewed it from every position, while the boatmen got down on his knees and looked up at him, and exclaimed, "Well, that beats the best of our meeting-house's darned sight."

By this time, the attention of the captain and several of the passengers was attracted to this genius. "What a fine fellow!" said one. "You may ring it for a d-d-d-d-d!" said the captain. "Well, it's a bargain, all fair and good, and so back to your cabin."

"Let's see, sir," said the captain. "Our hero is the best of us, that the passengers were delighted with. The Captain had to give him a free passage and $5 to stop."
