Here's One of The Best

A Bishop who has a liking for fine suits once remarked that while the Creator could doubtless produce a better berry than the strawberry, doubtless He never had.

We often reflect the same words, slightly varied, would be true of the magnificent models of 20th Century Suits we are now selling at $18, $20, $22 and $25.

Some days as experience and skill show the way, better suits may be produced for equal money.

But we believe they have not YET been surpassed—if equalled. Genuine, honest worth—INSIDE as well as OUTSIDE goodness—characterize these suits.

Summer weight, light fabrics, coats half lined or full lined as preferred.

$18, $20, $22, and $25 for the exceptionally fine ones. But good honest value at all prices down to $8.

George Collins, Hannah Collins and the accused gave evidence for the defense. The testimony of the witnesses was practically the same as given at the preliminary examination.

BRILLIANT FLIGHTS OF

YOUNG FRENCH AERONAUT

PARIS, June 9.—The interests of French aviators have been focused of late on the doings of the young aeronaut, Herbert Latham, who has been flying at Mourmelon-Le Grand in a monoplane. Following up his performance of three days ago when he remained in the air for one hour, seven minutes and forty-five seconds, M. Latham made a new record yesterday evening in which his machine demonstrated considerable maneuverability the face of a 15-mile breeze. He showed also good general control and reached Latham's themat facility to change from one attitude to another. His height ranged from 15 to 30 yards. Latham's machine suggested a foot thick in the centre and tapering into flexible fins designed to give stability. The space between the two layers of canvas is water-tight and is calculated to insure safety should the machine fall into water.

Kelley, of Valley Road, and the groom, Mr. Albert E. Wilson, of the firm of Jas. Wilson and Sons. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Geo. M. Young at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. Wm. Robinson, in the presence of the members of the family. The bride was very winsome in a travelling costume of grey broadcloth with hat to match. They were unattended. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was enjoyed, and later Mr. and Mrs. Wilson left on the Washington county express for a visit to Boston and other cities. A large number of beautiful presents testified to the esteem in which they are deservedly held.
