CHARLES LLOYD.

BATHURST, April 16, 1838.

Mr. CHARLES LLOYD.

Sin.—The undersigned read with surprise in the Gleaner of the 10th inst. the report of the proceedings of "a respectable and numerously attended meeting," held in this town on the 2d of April, in reference to the affairs of Mr. Leggett, in which your conduct is severely censured.

From the ingenious manner in which those proceedings are published, we must confess there appears to be a design to burden you in the public estimation, with the reproach of all classes in this community, which we conceive to be mest audactors and unjust.

Therefore, in justice to you, sir, in vindication of our own opinions and character, and from a due regard for the dissemination of truth, we beg to assure you that we know nothing of "a runtic meeting of the inhabitants of Bathurst' held in this place for the purposes alluded to, nor do the Resolutions reported to have been adopted at such a meeting, convey our sentiments.

reported to have been adopted at such a meeting, convey our sentiments.

Had the fismes of the active movers in these proceedings been given to the public, as they ought to have been, we would then have deemed this letter.

We are, sir, your obedient servants. We are, sir, your obedient servants,
