

DOUGLAS GIVEN THREE YEARS FOR GOAT STEALING

May Be Released in Two Months If Conduct Good— Judge Forbes Pays Tribute To Dr. MacRae.

The last session for this year of the County Court opened at the court house yesterday morning at 11 o'clock, Judge Forbes presiding. In addressing the grand jury His Honor said that he was happy to inform them that no one criminal case would be presented to them. After outlining the duties of that body and summing up the facts of the case of the King vs. James Boyd, as contained in the deposition, he spoke in feeling terms of the great loss sustained by both the legal profession and the community in the death of Dr. A. W. MacRae, K. C., and his honor, "in the full strength of his manhood he was cut down. Faithfully did he serve the city as an alderman, devoted was to his wife and children, and staunch to his friends. This community is poorer today by the death of Dr. MacRae and our heartfelt sympathy goes to his wife and four children in their irreparable loss."

Congratulated the Police. His Honor then congratulated the police force in their successful efforts in keeping the city clear from crime, and congratulated the police magistrate on his promptness in sending prisoners up for trial. The grand jury then retired and shortly after 12 o'clock returned a true bill in the case of the King vs. James Boyd, charged with escaping from the chain gang on Aug. 27. They were then discharged. The prisoner was brought into court and pleaded guilty. His Honor, in sentencing him to two years in Dorchester penitentiary said that he proposed to make an example of such escaped prisoners as Mr. C. H. Ferguson appeared for the crown. His Honor then discharged the petit jury.

The non-jury cases are: Harvey Ring vs. W. H. Andrews—Weldon and McLane. C. Frederick Black vs. A. M. Campbell—Mr. John B. M. Baxter, K. C. Hamm vs. Fawcett Haney Co.—Mr. C. F. Sanford.

The civil cases will be tried this month in chambers. Special Session. A special session of the County Court under the Speedy Trials Act was held in the afternoon at 2:30 o'clock for the purpose of trying Alexander MacDougall, a Scotchman, who was arrested on Monday night between seven and eight o'clock, on a charge of stealing a coat, the property of a German, Harry Perry.

The prisoner claimed that he was so drunk that he did not know who he was doing. He was not represented by counsel. Mr. C. H. Ferguson appeared for the prosecution. Harry Perry, a German, who had been a resident of St. John for his past eight years, told about hanging his coat up in the sitting room of the Travis boarding house, Smythe street. Later he said he missed it and discovered it on the prisoner in an alley off Water street.

Policeman James Semple told of finding the prisoner in an alley off Water street on Monday night between seven and eight o'clock. MacDougall was dead drunk and had to be carried to the lock-up. The coat was found on the prisoner. His Honor found him guilty and sentenced him to a term of three years in Dorchester penitentiary, to commence after the expiration of two months imprisonment imposed by Magistrate Ritchie for drunkenness terminations. Should MacDougall be a model prisoner while he is in jail, His Honor intimated that he would not enforce the penitentiary sentence.

PREPARATIONS FOR COMING CONGRESS OF SALVATION ARMY

Great Results Expected From Meetings Opening Here Saturday—Entertainment Being Extensively Provided.

Extensive preparations are being made for the congress to be conducted by Commissioner Coombs which will open here next Saturday, and the prospects are that it will prove one of the most far reaching in its results yet held by the Salvation Army in the Maritime Provinces. In addition to Commissioner Coombs and his staff, more than one hundred officers will be present, also hundreds of Salvationists from the surrounding districts. The many friends of the Army have kindly undertaken the entertainment of the officers during congress week, only a few more billets being required to meet the needs of the occasion. The platform of gentlemen who will support the chair on Sunday afternoon on the occasion of Commissioner Coombs' lecture, promises to be a very strong and influential one. Colonel Turner feels gratified that the progress being made and anticipates a record breaking series of meetings.

Carriage Badly Smashed. By colliding with street car No. 73 on Prince William street, near Prince street yesterday afternoon, a single seated carriage owned and driven by Mr. J. W. Brickley, proprietor of the York stables, Brussels street, had one of the rear wheels broken off and the shafts broken. Mr. Brickley escaped unhurt but Mr. Jas. Bartley, who was driving with him had his legs bruised. The car which was in charge of Motocarn A. C. Killam and Conductor F. A. Hamilton and the carriage were both going in the direction of Reid's Point when the accident occurred. The collision was due to an oil wagon proceeding towards Market square which caused the carriage to be smashed against the car.

BAND STAND MADE OVER TO CITY AT FAIR LAST NIGHT

Mayor Bullock Receives Gift From City Cornet Band—Many Interesting Features And Pretty Decorations.

The formal presentation to the city of the new bandstand erected on King Square by the City Cornet Band took place yesterday evening at 8:30 o'clock at the opening of the band's "Around the World Fair" in the Mission Hall, Wellington street. Mayor Bullock on behalf of the city officially accepted the gift. There were present on the platform: Ald. Codner, Ald. Frink, Ald. Belyea, Ald. Fotts and President James Connolly. In making the presentation, Mr. Connolly said that on behalf of the band he wished to extend their thanks to the citizens who had contributed so generously towards the work, and made the bandstand a possibility. He expressed the desire that the stand would be named after His Most Gracious Majesty, and would be known as the "King Edward Bandstand." As Mayor Bullock arose to accept the deed of gift, the band played God Save the King. In a brief but glowing tribute to the band and the stand, the Mayor said that the stand would remain a perpetual monument to the enterprise of its members, and a public tribute to their work as citizens. Aldermen Codner, Frink and Fotts, gave short speeches in which they eulogized the band for its enterprise and public spirit.

Ald. Belyea said that he did not feel at home in making a speech, but would do the next best thing and donate a small subscription towards the stand. The Alderman handed Mr. Connolly a five dollar bill. His example was promptly followed by the other city fathers present. This finished the presentation proceedings and the fair was declared formally opened. Although the weather was unfavorable there was a very large attendance and many favorable comments were heard on the attractiveness of the different booths and decorations. On entering the first thing noticeable is a pretty decorated archway made of boughs and bunting covers the bandstand and in the rear of the stand is seen the pictures of the past and present members of the City Cornet Band. Along the right-hand side of the hall are three booths similar in size and structure but varying slightly in decorations. These are the fancy chance and candy booths and they are trimmed daintily with yellow and white, red and white and pink and white respectively, each presenting a very pleasing appearance.

Facing these on the opposite side on the wall in large capitals is the inscription: "City Cornet Band—1874." The letters entwined with bunting and the whole surrounded by flags and patriotic shields. Below this is the fortune teller's tepee with its air of mystery and magic, also the bean heaver's, the Klondyke block and other games. One of the features of the fair is the drawings for the around the world lottery in which 94 prize trip tickets, valued at $1000, and cash aggregating $1255 are offered.

Prize Winners. The prize winners last evening were: Gentlemen's bean board—Mr. C. Nichols, 1st (240) half dozen handkerchiefs. Ladies' bean board—Mrs. C. Nichols, 1st, 240 vase. The basket of roses donated by Mr. Wm. O'Keefe was won by Mr. Dan Owens.

The following list of the booths and those in charge of each: Chance table—Mrs. O'Leary, assisted by Miss McCullough, Miss Mary Higgins and Miss M. O'Leary. Candy booth—Mrs. M. Higgins, assisted by Miss Mollie McGuigan, Miss Ella Connelly and Miss Rose McGuigan. Ice cream booth—Mrs. Clark, assisted by Miss Brennan, Miss M. Robinson and Miss G. Doyle. Fancy booth—Mrs. McCarthy and Mrs. Driscoll, assisted by Miss Ann and Miss Irene Shaw. Bean board—Miss Kathryn Wallace and Miss Kathryn Higgins. Refreshments—Mr. Connelly, Mr. Butler, H. McQuade.

NEW RECORD FOR CITY COUNCIL AT CAPITAL

Transacts Business Of a Month In Twenty-five Minutes—Union of Municipalities' Stand Endorsed.

Special To The Standard. Fredericton, N. B., Nov. 2.—The city council established a record to-day in doing the business of the month meeting rapidly. It took but 25 minutes to complete the work. The auditor's report was adopted showing a total expenditure of $6,122.97. Tenders for trap rock for street work at 90 cents and 80 cents per ton were considered high and the road master was authorized to purchase 1,500 tons at not more than 75 cents per ton. The council endorsed the stand taken by the Canadian Union of Municipalities regarding cement work.

Portland Lodge, S. Of E. Concert. The concert in Alexandra Hall under the auspices of Portland Lodge, Sons of England, last evening, proved to be one of the best of the season. The large hall was crowded and many were obliged to stand. The programme was as follows:—Songs, Mr. Gibson, Mr. Robt. Holder, Mr. F. Howard, Messrs. Simpson, Mr. Harry Noakes, Mr. Ed. Brittain, Mr. Wm. Oakes; readings, Miss Carrie Green, Mr. James, Miss G. Seely; sleight of hand tricks, Prof. Sangamus; bone solo, Mr. E. Bond; comedy sketch, Esau and Bailey. The Victoria Street Baptist Church orchestra was present, and rendered excellent music during the evening.

MUCH BUSINESS HAS BEEN TRANSACTED—RESOLUTION PROTESTING AGAINST BRIDGE WHIST PLAYING DEFEATED AFTER INTERESTING DISCUSSION—SUPERINTENDENTS OF DEPARTMENTS APPOINTED—ELECTION OF OFFICERS COMPLETED—RESOLUTION OF THANKS PASSED—NEXT MEETING IN PROVINCE OF QUEBEC IN 1911.

Last evening the sixteenth convention of the Dominion Woman's Temperance Union, which has been meeting in the city since Friday last, was brought to a close, and today the majority of the delegates who have been in attendance will leave for their homes. During the convention many important matters were considered and much business transacted. The dispatch with which the business was conducted was largely due to the impartial yet tactful manner in which Mrs. S. R. Wright, the president, observed the rules of procedure in connection with the carrying out of the programme. Much regret was expressed that Mrs. Annie M. Bacon of Toronto felt obliged to retire from the office of corresponding secretary. The only St. John lady to be elected an officer of the union was Mrs. T. H. Bullock, who was chosen as treasurer.

The session yesterday afternoon the superintendents of departments were appointed. The invitation of the members of Quebec union to hold the next biennial convention in their province was accepted. In the morning the most important committee was accepted, but after some discussion the union refused to place themselves on record as concerning the playing of bridge whist. In the morning the most important business was the election of officers and reading reports. Before the regular business of the day was taken a report from the executive regarding some proposed changes in the constitution was brought forward, and after some discussion it was decided to allow the report to remain unchanged in this particular—that the meeting should continue to be held biennially. Mrs. Tait, Jean Clark and Helen Robinson were appointed pages for the afternoon.

An election for provincial "Y" secretary resulted in a tie for Mrs. Gordon of Ottawa, and Miss Eleanor Smith of Windsor, Nova Scotia. A second ballot gave Miss Smith a majority. Jails and Prisons. Mrs. S. A. Jones of Quebec, Dominion superintendent of prisons and jails, reported from the various provincial unions. There was no official report from Ontario or Manitoba, where, however, Mrs. Jones said she knew the work was progressing favorably. In British Columbia there is a strong effort being made to provide a female police officer to take charge of girls and women. From British Columbia also came a request that the report should send a delegate to Washington, D. C. to the convention of a female police officer, a tribute was paid to Ontario's officer, whose sister, Mrs. Sanderson was present and spoke of the work done. In response to a question as to what this particular officer was called, Mrs. Sanderson said in Ontario her sister was known as ballif.

Delegate Appointed. It was moved by Mrs. Archibald of Nova Scotia, and seconded by Mrs. J. E. Lower, Quebec, that Mrs. S. A. Jones, Quebec, be sent to Washington, D. C., October 1910, to the prison workers' conference to be held there, the union to defray the expenses of Mrs. Jones. It was decided to carry. It was urged that the Dominion Government appoint a superintendent of police work, and that she should if possible be a woman of means, as the rank would of necessity entail heavy expenses. It was hoped that the Women's Local Council of St. John would take up the matter as soon as possible. It was further decided that in England a female doctor had been appointed to deal with the women in the jails and police stations. The report brought forth a lengthy discussion on the best ways of dealing with refractory women, whom it was urged it must be remembered, are at the end of a heavy work, or how depraved they had fallen, were still women and should be treated with a degree at least of sympathetic consideration. It was decided to forward a copy of Mrs. Jones' report to the Dominion Government.

Systematic Giving. The report of systematic giving by Mrs. S. H. Black, of Nova Scotia, showed that throughout the Dominion the benefit in systematic giving was noticeable. The unions as well as those with whom they came in contact were better for the regular systems that had been organized throughout the Dominion. A pleasant interruption to the reading of the reports came in an offer of $50 from Mrs. Wright, to the union for the greatest increase in membership. The election of secretary for Loyalty Temperance Legion resulted in 54 votes for Mrs. Ada McLaughlan, of Hamilton, who was introduced to the meeting, and in a few adequate words expressed her appreciation of the fact that she was the pioneer officer in this department. The election of editor for the "White Ribbon Bulletin" resulted in the election of Mrs. Ada Gordon.

It was moved by Mrs. Campbell, of Ontario, seconded by Mrs. Bray, of New Brunswick, that Mrs. Wright, of the retiring editor of the Bulletin, for the efficient manner in which she has carried on the work of the paper, a rising vote and an enthusiastic clapping of hands greeted Mrs. Waycott, who said that while she appreciates the sentiment of the meeting, she felt that in laying down the editorship she was freeing herself of a task that while heavy had not been entirely without pleasure, and that she felt that it was not necessary for her among those who knew her, to vindicate herself in any respect. A vote of thanks to Mrs. Waycott's services was also extended to her from the "Ys," with whom she had been associated for many years. The Curfew Bell. Mrs. G. M. McKee in her report on the Curfew Bell, said that as far as she had heard, there had been no further legislation in regard to this subject, but that the necessity was as great as ever, that in the Children's Protection Act the curfew laws on the by-law was set forth so simple in construction that it could be carried out without trouble or expense in any town or village. She hoped the various Police, corresponding, Miss Margaret Lindsay, Miss Margaret C. Jordan, Miss S. B. Vaughan, Miss Carrie Barnes, Miss Edith Cumming, Miss Nan R. Miller, Miss E. C. McDougall, Mrs. Fred. Goodspeed, Mrs. John B. Vaughan, Mrs. G. T. Buchanan, Mrs. A. W. Robb, Mrs. R. A. Corbett, Mrs. J. P. McInerney, Mrs. J. J. McCaskill, Mrs. Jas. O. Magy, associate, and Miss Rosalie Waterman, junior associate.

The monthly meeting of the Natural History Society was held last evening, Senator Ellis, the president, in the chair. It was reported that the library had received the usual number of exchanges from other scientific societies and that the museum had been exchanged by a curious tree formation from C. H. Lee, a fossil mastodon tooth found in the Yukon, and presented by Martin G. B. Henderson, African pipe from F. Caverhill Jones, an old U. S. coin from Kenneth Dymkman and a Cambrian fossil ripple mark from A. Gordon Leavitt. The following new members were elected: Dr. J. P. McInerney, M. P. P.; Fred Goodspeed, Rev. J. J. McCaskill, regular; David Balmain, of Indian Point, corresponding; Miss Margaret Lindsay, Miss Margaret C. Jordan, Miss S. B. Vaughan, Miss Carrie Barnes, Miss Edith Cumming, Miss Nan R. Miller, Miss E. C. McDougall, Mrs. Fred. Goodspeed, Mrs. John B. Vaughan, Mrs. G. T. Buchanan, Mrs. A. W. Robb, Mrs. R. A. Corbett, Mrs. J. P. McInerney, Mrs. J. J. McCaskill, Mrs. Jas. O. Magy, associate, and Miss Rosalie Waterman, junior associate. A hearty vote of thanks was ordered to be tendered to Dr. J. P. McInerney for his readiness in giving an address at the recent convocation. Dr. L. W. Bailey was the lecturer of the evening and his subject "Interpretation of Natural Scenery." The lecturer showed that there were several modes of interpretation, such as the mythical, poetical, utilitarian and scientific, and explained that the latter was of course the most valuable as it went to the root of the matter and traced out the laws and whys. Mountains, plateaus, plains, lakes, volcanoes, glaciers and coast lines were all referred to and their formation, etc., explained. With the aid of the reflectoscope over one hundred beautiful views of the subject referred to were shown, these included many of the most celebrated volcanoes, mountains, glaciers and falls. The lecturer was most attentively listened to throughout and, at its close a hearty vote of thanks was given by Mr. W. F. Burditt and seconded by Mr. T. H. Estabrooks, was presented to Dr. Bailey. Mrs. Currie protested against comparing bridge whist with the white slave traffic, and said that the one led to the other. It was a species of narcotic, said another. The amendment was finally carried by a large majority. It was decided to leave all unfinished business to a meeting of the full convention adjourned today and the convention adjourned. Reception by Women's Council. After the meeting adjourned a large number of the delegates attended the reception in their honor given by the local branch of the Women's Council of the Y. C. The guests were received by Mrs. David McLeelan, Mrs. Jas. Dever, Mrs. J. V. Ellis, Mrs. C. B. Allen, Mrs. D. P. Chisholm and Miss Leavitt in the parlour which was prettily decorated for the occasion. Refreshments were served in the assembly room on the second floor. Mrs. A. Austin and Mrs. John Burpee presided at the table and a number of young ladies of the St. Vincent's Alumni and the High School Alumni assisted in serving the refreshments. EVENING SESSION. The convention was brought to an end in the evening when a largely attended meeting was held in the church at which Rev. John Pringle of Sydney, N. S., delivered an interesting and outspoken address on the manner of arousing the high moral sense of the people by the use of the pulpit. The president of the union presided and the opening exercises were conducted by Rev. C. H. Flanders, D. D., pastor of the church. After Rev. Dr. Pringle had concluded his address the convention passed a vote of thanks to all who had assisted in making their stay in the city an enjoyable one. The resolution reads: "Resolved, That the Dominion W. C. T. U. assembled in St. John desire to feel at the cordiality of our reception here in your city. We thank you for the hospitality which has been extended to us and for the uniform courtesy and kindness shown us. We would especially thank those who have helped at our meetings, and have done so in the services by songs and recitations. The council of women, the Historical Society and the Natural History Society to the Mayor and Mrs. Bullock, for donating plants, to the railway companies for reducing rates, to the press and all who have in any way helped in the success of the 16th annual convention we extend our heartfelt thanks." Before the meeting was brought to a close, Miss A. G. Hea, who has presided at the meeting, was presented with a bouquet of chrysanthemums by the Dominion Union and Mrs. Ann M. Masco, who has retired from the office of corresponding secretary after ten years of service, was presented with a bouquet of carnations. The morning meeting of the executive will be held for the purpose of disposing of the unfinished business, and in the afternoon Mrs. Wright, Mrs. Gordon and the majority of the delegates will leave for their homes. Some of the delegates, however, will remain in the city for a day or two. INSTANTLY KILLED. OTTAWA SCORED BY DR. PRINGLE

Continued From Page 1. Of seventeen passengers, ten were prostitutes and one day he read in the paper an advertisement stating that 30 fresh girls had just arrived. Last year after the Yukon had been for ten long years the Mecca of the social, the Government was induced to order the custom officers to enforce the law.

A number of years before the Mounted Police had started to enforce the law, but a petition was sent to Ottawa by the liquor men and keepers of dives, and the Government ordered this order was afterwards explained and it was learned that these men had contributed $50,000 to the Government's election fund. The speaker knew of young men who could not afford, they said, to attend the receptions given by prominent citizens of Dawson, whose duty it was to administer the laws, as they said they would be bled at poker. On one occasion the registrar of the Yukon and a number of Government officials went down to the wharf and two of these young men of good families in the east, were surrounded by a dozen prostitutes who before the boat left begged for a word. Twenty-five dollars had been sent to the Government about the matter, but no action was taken.

Finally it was necessary that the laws be enforced without discrimination. Why should a woman be branded as a prostitute and her evidence declared no account, if the evidence of a man prostitute who had dishonored his family be accepted? Why should a house of ill fame be raided and the women arrested but the men allowed to go free? If there was one reason for giving the women the vote it was in order that there might be justice. The trouble was the men were afraid of giving the women the vote. Why should a poor wretch suffering from hunger be sent to the penitentiary for theft and a man who had stolen thousands go free? If the people forgot righteousness the country could amount to nothing. At the bottom the people were spiritual and moral beings, and Canada must become spiritual in order to grow into a great nation.

Prizes Presented. There was a large attendance at the quarterly meeting of the R. K. T. C. in the club rooms last evening when the prizes won during the season were presented and other important business transacted. Commodore Thomson presided and handed the prizes to the winners as follows: Class H—Mona, owned by John Froehman, Merrill Cup and pennant. Class B—1st, Vagabond, Dr. Merrill, Lovett Cup and $5; 2nd, Savitar, Gordon, Likely, $5; 3rd, Edith, Chas. E. Elwell, $4. RED WIDOW TO ANSWER MURDER CHARGE

Continued From Page 1. had plenty of affairs—that M. Steinhell had been a more than complacent husband. Suspicion commenced to concentrate against the widow. Then came a telling blow. She had run down an innocent person who had proved alibi. She accused Couillard, the valet. In his pocket Couk was found a pearl taken from a ring in the list given by Mme. Steinhell as stolen by the murderers. Couillard vehemently protested his innocence. A jeweler was then found who declared Mme. Steinhell had brought him the ring to have the pearl removed and the gold melted down. Confronted by the jeweler, she broke down, confessed that what the man said was true.

Couillard's Pocket. "I put the pearl in Couillard's pocket," she sobbed, "to shield another whose name I must not mention. I love him and he has shunned me. The man was Alexander Wolff. Wolff promptly proved an alibi and was released. Mme. Steinhell admitted she had made a mistake. She was eventually arrested herself and put through "hard degree" which in Paris, means the reconstruction of the crime in its every detail in her presence. Steinhell had the entrée to the immense circles of one of the most delightful groups of Parisian society. Mme. Steinhell, the granddaughter of one of the most estimable manufacturers of Bayonne, married her artist to get to Paris and its life of light and intrigue. She immediately commenced her campaign for power. She passed the literary and artistic lights and became a notable figure in high judicial and political society at the French capital.

She started her own salon. Everybody came when Mme. Steinhell invited. Money was spent lavishly although M. Steinhell was poor. He mortgaged his home in the Impasse Ronsin. Then came a change. Mme. Steinhell was introduced to President Faure. The first man in France fell subject to her charms. His visits to the Steinhell home continued after the portrait he sat for was completed by her artist husband. Two years later Faure died suddenly. Cardinal Richard, Archbishop of Paris, and the Prince of Monaco, visited the president in the afternoon. They noticed that the president seemed distraught. Mme. Steinhell was all the time in the next room. Two hours later she rushed from the house shrieking for help. M. le Gall, the president's secretary, rushed into the room. The President of France was dead. On his table awaiting his signature, was a paper that would have reopened the Dreyfus case. This fact aroused the anti-Dreyfusards as well as the Dreyfusards. Later, grave charges were brought against the police for shielding Mme. Steinhell. Men came forward with tales of her wild and their own captives. The King of Cambodia visiting Paris had fallen under her spell. With the announcement that the defence will rely principally on a plea
