FITCHBURG TEMPLARS TO BE HERE NEXT WEEK

Knights of Jerusalem Commandery K. T., will be Guests of Local Knights Templars—Will Arrive Friday.

The city will have a visit from Jerusalem Commandery Knights Templars of Fitchburg, Mass., next week and the visitors may expect a warm welcome.

The knights' party will number 175 including a military brass band of 20 musicians and they will leave Boston on the steamer Calvia Austin on Thursday morning next.

After partaking of dinner at the hotel, the knights will board street cars and proceed to Indiantown where they will embark on the steamer Champlain and enjoy a sail up the river.

After the degree work the St. John commandery will tender the visitors a banquet.

Saturday morning the visiting knights will be tendered a drive about the city in carriages and automobiles as guests of the St. John knights.

It is hoped that arrangements will be made to have the Fitchburg band render a concert on the King Edward bandstand during the afternoon.

The visitors will leave on the Calvia Austin Saturday evening on their return trip to the Hub.

62ND REGIMENT WILL LEAVE FOR HUB TONIGHT

Officers and Men are Looking Forward to a Very Enjoyable Time as Guests of Boston Organizations.

Last night the members of the 62nd Regiment met at the drill shed and new serges and a complete outfit were given out.

This evening the regiment, about 300 strong, garbed in a complete fit-out comprising great coats, busbies, bayonets, kit bag and water bottle, are headed by the drum and brass bands, will leave the barracks and parade to the Union Depot where they will board a special train en route to Boston.

They are expected to arrive in Boston at 9 a. m. on Saturday, and will at once march to the South Armory, where nicely fitted quarters have been prepared for their reception.

The officers will go to the Hotel Victoria, about 200 yards away. The first parade will be at noon on Saturday, and after this the men will march to Charlestown to take part in the celebration. About 6.15 p. m. it is thought they will return to the barracks.

Breakfast will be served in the barracks at 8 a. m. Sunday and at 9.30 the "fall in" will be sounded for church parade.

At Paragon park in the afternoon the regiment will be the guests of the city of Boston, while the following day, Monday, at noon, the whole regiment will be entertained at luncheon by the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company.

Then at 4 p. m. the soldier lads will say good-bye to the "Hub" and march to the train for their return trip. They are expected to reach here between 9 and 7 a. m. on Tuesday.

The programme prepared for the officers of the regiment during their visit looks tempting and pleasing. On Saturday at 8 a. m. they will breakfast as the guests of the 8th Regiment, on Saturday at noon they will have luncheon as the guests of the city, and in the evening the governor of the state will tender them a dinner.

On Monday morning the Boston City Club will have them as their guests, while at noon they will attend the dinner of the A. and H. A. Co. with the men.

Medical Society To Meet. The members of the Medical Society are requested to meet at the residence of the late Dr. George Hetherington, Sydney street, at 10.30 o'clock this morning for the purpose of attending the funeral.

Eastern S.S. Co. Changes Wharf. The International division of the Eastern Steamship Line will after the 19th land passengers at the India wharf, Boston, instead of the Union wharf. This will be of great convenience to passengers as it is nearer the South Station.

PROGRAMME OUTLINED FOR CORONATION DAY

There will be Church Services, and Several Processions During Day, with Fireworks in the Evening.

The Coronation Committee met last evening in the Court House to further consider the plans for the celebration.

Ald. J. B. Jones presided and His Worship the Mayor was present.

Ald. Jones informed the meeting that the pyrotechnic display had arrived for the celebration and that the firemen had sent word that they had outlined their route of procession.

His worship stated that the members of the Common Council had been invited to attend the service in St. Paul's church on the morning of Coronation Day and had accepted the invitation.

R. J. Wilkins representing the Polymorphians was present and stated that the Polymorphians were ready to take part. They had spared no efforts to make the parade a success, but they had not met with the same encouragement from the merchants that had been shown in the past.

It is hoped that arrangements will be made to have the Fitchburg band render a concert on the King Edward bandstand during the afternoon.

The meeting adjourned at 9 o'clock to meet again on Tuesday evening next to make the final arrangements.
