OBITUARY.

Miss Eliza Philips. The death of Miss Eliza Philips, daughter of the late Thomas and Elizabeth Philips, took place Friday at 24 Wellington row, aged 87 years. She was a lifelong resident of this city and was a prominent member of the Congregational church. Four nephews and two nieces survive.

Mrs. F. H. O'Leary. The death of Mrs. Francis H. O'Leary took place early Saturday morning at 117 Brussels street, aged 20 years. She leaves besides her husband, one child. The deceased was a daughter of Corporal and Mrs. C. H. Allen of Fredericton. Three brothers and one sister also survive—Harry R. Allen, of Port Nelson, Hudson's Bay; Drummer Royden Allen, on garrison duty at Halifax; Sydney H. Allen and Mrs. Stanley Corey of Fredericton.

P. S. MacNutt. A telegram received Saturday morning by Mrs. Deane, wife of Rev. J. Deinstadt, announced the sudden death at Spokane, Washington, of her brother-in-law, Peter Stuart MacNutt, following an operation. The news will be a sad shock to many friends in St. John, who knew both Mr. and Mrs. MacNutt well and entertain kindly recollections of their residence in St. John. Mr. MacNutt was a native of Prince Edward Island and was engaged in the agricultural implement business in this city until about fifteen years ago, when on account of business reverses he and his wife, Mrs. MacNutt, moved to the west. Only one son, Mr. Deinstadt, is survived by his widow, formerly Miss Annie Beer of P. E. Island, a sister, Mrs. Deinstadt. They have two sons, Percy and Frank, who are now on overseas service with the Canadian troops.

Mrs. John H. Folkins. Mrs. John H. Folkins of Pleasant Point, Parish of Studholm, Kings county, died on Monday, the 28th June, A. D. 1915. About eight weeks previous to her death she suffered a severe stroke of paralysis from which she partly recovered, but later on death ended her suffering. Mrs. Folkins was a daughter of the late Isaac Z. and Martha Parlee of Carletonville, Kings county, and was in her seventy-third year at time of death. She is survived by her husband, John H. Folkins, and an only son, Fred C., who lives at home; three daughters, Mrs. Herman H. Frazer of Grooton, Pleasant Point, Kings county, and Mrs. A. H. Zine of Bridgewater, N. S.; also three brothers, A. W. James B. and Howard Parlee, and two sisters, Mrs. J. T. Folkins of Moncton and Mrs. W. D. Folkins of Millstream. The funeral took place on Wednesday, June 30th, interment being made in Berwick cemetery at Millstream. Rev. J. F. Rowley, Methodist minister, conducted the funeral services at which their was a very large attendance. There were over fifty teams in the procession from the home to the church.

EFFICIENCY VACATION. One of the latest and best plans is what is commonly referred to as the efficiency vacation, and is being tried this summer by E. W. Gillett Company of Toronto. Under the plan in question all factory and office employees will have a two weeks' vacation at the same time. In a large business, a lot of very careful planning is necessary in order to have the scheme work out satisfactorily, but it is expected the result will be better than under the regular plan which means that probably two or three people would be away every week during the entire summer.

Dr. Fraser in Two Churches. Rev. I. Kerr Fraser, D. D., of Charlottetown (S. C.), preached yesterday morning in St. Stephen's Presbyterian church before a large congregation, taking as the subject of his sermon the threefold aspect of life, the outward life, the inward life and the Christian life. In the evening Dr. Fraser preached an eloquent sermon in St. Andrew's church, his subject being the Foolish Virgins. The church was well filled with appreciative hearers. Dr. Fraser will again preach in St. Andrew's next Sunday evening.

Dog Licenses. Up to Saturday, 1,159 dog licenses have been issued and the total is still considerably below that of last year. The unusual feature of the dog tax this year is the number that have been taken since the double license rate has come into effect on July 1st. It is probable that there are still a considerable number of unlicensed dogs in the city and vigorous measures will be taken to round them up.

Medical Inspection in Schools. Dr. W. F. Roberts will address the members of the Rotary Club on the subject of medical inspection of the public school children. The meeting is scheduled for Monday at one o'clock today. Luncheon will be served and other business transacted.
