BRIDGEWATER DEFEATS YARMOUTH FOR CHAMPIONSHIP

Yarmouth 0 1 0 0 1 1 0 0 0 2 0-5
Bridgewater 0 0 0 0 2 0 0 0 0 2 1-4

In a thrilling eleven inning game of baseball the high school team of Bridgewater won the provincial championship from Yarmouth at the local diamond on Saturday afternoon. A large number of fans were present from Bridgewater, but only a few coming from Yarmouth, and with a good sprinkling of Middletonsians, a fair sized crowd witnessed the fixture.

The game was handled by R. Beals and L. C. Andrews.

Margallan and K. Harris composed the battery for Yarmouth, and were without a doubt a formidable pair, working out of the pinches in major style, while McPherson and Lewis did the grand for Bridgewater, they too were a fine pair and held their opponents well in bounds. The two teams were very evenly matched, and furnished a game full of thrills and spectacular plays from the time the first ball was thrown to the time when the winning run crossed the plate.

The line-ups were:—
Yarmouth:—6, Wallace; 9, Harris; 5, Swin; 1, Harris, K; 2, Margallan; 4, Deveau; 3, Cain; 7, Ritchie; 8, Smut. Sub: Reddon; 10, Simmonds; 11, Bridgewater:—6, Montgomerie; 4, Palmer; 7, Keddy; 2, McPherson; 1, Lewis; 3, Naugher; 8, Simmonds; 5, Joudrey; 9, Semons; sub: Simmonds and McCarthy.

FOR SAFER DRIVING

Don your headlights.

When going slow, keep toward the curb.

Don't take on or discharge passengers without the curb.

Slow down at intersections.

Sure-working brakes are better than a loud horn.

In turning into another street, edge over to the right if your turn is to the right. Don't make a right-hand turn from the middle of the street.

If making a left-hand turn, edge to the middle of the street. Don't make a left hand turn from the right side of the street.

Signal to the rear when you intend to turn or slow down.

Don't try to pass another machine on the right.

Keep both hands on the steering wheel at all times.

Keep your eyes on the road straight ahead.

Slow down when nearing children.

You can never tell which way they will jump.

Don't Speed.

TO YOU

It isn't the man who smiles that counts. When everything goes dead wrong, Nor is it the man who meets defeat. Slugging a ray little song: The song and the smile are well worth while.

Provided they aren't a bluff. But, here's to the man who smiles and sings. And then—Produces the Stuff.

New Name For It.

She (anxious to impress) — "I've just put my fur into cold storage!" "The Fur?—Cold storage? Ha!—Jolly good—never heard 't called that before, my cut-links and watch are there, too."

TWO NEAR-TRAGEDIES

Two things happened last Friday which are of more or less interest: one was a daring robbery—a young lady of our town was taking her role of cheques and bills to the bank for deposit. She had hardly more than commenced her trip, when several young ladies, quite harmless looking, demanded the worldly goods she possessed. Being refused, the would-be bandits, overpowered the lady with the role and deprived her of the goods and coin again without the loss of a single farthing. Seeing the case had been settled without the aid of the cops and magistrates, we won't mention any of the parties concerned, but they may never forget the incident.

The other item, was the sudden departure of "The Hoodoo" from our fair town. The players, themselves are to be blamed for this seemingly foolish stunt, considering the fact that they have had "The Hoodoo" safely confined within the secret chamber of the armoury, and then deliberately take it out of town, when it was announced to make a public appearance in the Armadale on the 3rd. They considered "The Hoodoo" needed a little sea breeze, so they chained the hood and along with themselves dumped the whole outfit into Parker Dodge's truck and beat it for Margareville. Oh, yes, by the way Parker will be pleased to take joy riders to the bay or any place else at a nominal remuneration—so the facts are. Anyway Mr. Armour scented the departure of "The Hoodoo" and hit out to know the reason why, because hundreds of people were planning on seeing the old chap on "July Skidoo" and he did not want them to be disappointed. He met the party far on going likely split for the bay shore—but he stopped them short and demanded an explanation. The players were somewhat taken by surprise, but after much confab and reasoning, J. D. McKenzie and Mrs. Starr decided themselves to the safe return of "The Hoodoo" and personally guaranteed the appearance of it at The Armadale on July 23rd, whether it rained or snowed.

Mrs. Claude Blom, who resides at Margareville, they were sure, would see to it that none of the suckers would run off with the treasure "Hoodoo" and dispose of him in some foreign port. Being satisfied, Mr. Armour permitted this continuance of the journey. Well, the story has been told, the players had a splendid rehearsal at Margareville, and all felt elated over the fact that they were doing fine, and a rare treat is in store for those who take advantage of the opportunity to see "The Hoodoo" in The Armadale on Thursday evening, July 23rd. Correspondents of Daily papers are requested to not mention these near-tragedies.

LITTLE CHILD OF MR. AND MRS. AISLEY HATT PASSES AWAY

In Wednesday, July 8th, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Ainsley Hatt, passed away, after a short illness. Little Granville was one of the twins, born September 15th, 1924. They were bright children, Granville being especially active and forward for his age.

He seemed in perfect health until Tuesday night, when he was taken sick, and on the following evening, the spirit took its flight. It was a great shock to the sorrowing family for whom deep sympathy is felt.

The funeral service was fittingly conducted by Rev. W. D. Wilson, assisted by Rev. R. W. Demmings. The burial took place at the Union Cemetery at South Farmington.

The floral tributes were very beautiful and were as follows:—Roses, Anna and Dorothy Vye; roses, Mrs. Bowlby; pansies, Grandma Myers; cut flowers, Beattie and Mary Hart; pansies, Mrs. Crocker; cut flowers, Flo and Effie Cox; wreath, Mrs. Bent; cut flowers, Mrs. Hart; cut flowers, Mrs. P. E. Cox; wild flowers, Lewis and Freeman; wreath, Mrs. Bent; Messengers; bouquet, roses, Kathleen Cummings; cut flowers, Mrs. Rupp and family; roses, Aunt Jessie; roses, Henry Crocker; spray, Aunt Clara; pansies, Mrs. W. Walton; roses, Aunt Lennie and Aubrey; wreath, Grandma Hatt; roses, Aunt Mary and Cousin Elma; flowers, Lillian Durbin.

Young Lady—I wanted some violets, but I see you haven't any.
Pinner, the Florist.—But, O! have some lovely carnations, miss almost as pink as your pretty cheeks, and what we'd go to want violets for when yer eyes are full of them!"

Worries in the Home

It is These That Cause Many A Breakdown in Health:

Almost every woman at the head of a home meets daily with little worries in her household affairs. They may be too small to notice at first, afterwards, but it is the same little worries that break down the health of so many women. Their effect may be noticed in nervous headaches, sickle appetite, indigestion, pains in the side or back, and a sallow complexion. To those afflicted in this way Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, by improving and purifying the blood, bring speedy relief. Among thousands of weak women who have tested and proved the merits of this medicine is Mrs. Gustave Hutt, Bruxelles, Man. who says: "It is with profound thanks that I write to tell you what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done for me. Before I began taking these pills I was weak, and my blood thin and watery. I was so thin that I looked like a skeleton. I was troubled with headaches and indigestion, did not sleep well, and was terribly constipated. I decided to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and soon found that they were just what I needed. Under their use my appetite returned, my food digested properly, and I slept better at night, and gained in flesh, as well as strength. The result is that now I am a perfectly healthy woman, and there is no doubt that it is due to the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, a supply of which I now always keep in the house, and would advise other women to do the same."

You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
