To Rev. Thomas Quig'ey, P. P.:

Rev. AND DEAR FATHER—We, the members of St. Joseph's church, Stratford, learned with greet joy that your conspicuous ta ents and your zeal in the service of God and our holy religion were made by an appointment to an important parish in the Docese of London. Our judgets with the regret that the pleasant relations which have existed between your self and us during the past three years are thus terminated. We desire to testify to the great interest which you have taken, during those three years which you have spent as curate of St. Joseph's church, in the spiritual and temporal welfare of its members. As a slight toxe of our appreciation of your labors, we ask you to accept this cheque, and we ernestly pray that Providence may guide and bless you in that position of His greet viacyard, to which He has called you to labor.

Signed on behalf of St. Joseph's church. E. J. Kneitl, M. F. Goodwin, Elward of Fisherty, J. A. Devilin, M. D.; Thos. J. Douglas, T. F. Quirk, D. J. O'Connor.

Stratford, April 8th 189.

My Dear Friends.—To say that I am thankful to you would be a very poor expression, indeed, of the gratified I owe you for your kindeess not only on this occasion but on every occasion since I first knew you. But since have no better was at present of manifesting my gratified. I will say from my heart I hank you. Since I first came to Stratford Orlination people and this thought made the three years of my life amongst son bright and cheerful. Basides I was always execuraged by the kind indulgence of your beautiful address, even to over rate the little work I have done since I came among you are securaged by the purest of motives and therefore, I thank you most sincerely.

It is true the primary consideration which should console a priest in his labor is the members of St. Joseph's congregation Stratford. Bal on hand Sep! 4 'c8. Reneficiary $ 1868 36 Received to date. The chospitals are presided over by the most billiant medical minds in the world, and to obtain the prescriptions, elaborate and pikee on the market the remedies or at an about the market the remedies in use and encorace by such eminent medical surborlites, was a bold and brilliant piece of anterprise, and worthy of the success which has attended it. Shoals of quack remedies crowd the market, each abourdly calming to cure every ill from one bottle. The public will turn with relief from such biatent and snameless catchpennies, and patronize, not a remedy, but a list of remedies, each of which is a specific for a single disease, and has the recommendation of having been originated (not by the old woman or the beastly India, as the quack advertisements read, but by educated active time, who are physicians and special ists of the highest standing in Europe, and whose patrons have to pay from $25 to $500 to command their services. This is the greatest departyre known to modern medicine. The specifics, which are sood at one dollar each, are eight in number, and cover the following aliments: No. 1 Caterrh, Hay Fever, Rose Cold N. 2, Diseases of the Lungs, Coughs, Colds Bronchitis and Consumption No. 5, Rever and Ague, Dumb Ague, Neuragist.
