

Words of the Wise.

THE truly wise and good will not look upon any with scorn and disdain. WHEN we consider the misfortunes of others we think lightly of our own.

THE Christian will find his parentheses for prayer even in the busiest hours of life.—Cecil.

PRAY to God at the beginning of all thy works, that so thou mayest bring them all to a good ending.—Xenophon.

SLIPPERY places may fling up the heels of great giants, and little temptations may overthrow well-grown Christians.—Lee.

ADAM WALKER, of Tavistock, Ontario, writes, in February, 1868, that after trying many Cough and Lung remedies for a severe cold which he has suffered with for three years, he procured ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM and was being much benefited by it. In a letter still later, he said his night sweats were all gone and he was rapidly recovering—his appetite was much better and he felt like a new man.

THE gates of heaven fly open before Christ's righteousness, as certainly as Lydia's heart flew open under the hand of God's regenerating Spirit.

SATAN selects his disciples when they are idle, but Christ chose His while they were busy at work, either mending their nets or casting them into the sea.—Farndon.

WHEN a Christian lady once came to Carlyle and asked what she could do to make her life more useful, he replied: "Seek out some poor, friendless lassie, and be kind to her."

LOVE is the fulfilling of the law, the end of the Gospel commandment, the bond of perfectness. Without it, whatever be our attainments, professions, or sacrifices, we are—nothing.

MORE than one of the strong nations may shortly have to choose between a selfish secular civilization whose god is science, and an unselfish civilization whose God is Christ.—R. D. Hitchcock.

THE man who will not execute his resolutions when they are fresh upon him can have no hope from them afterward; they will be dissipated, lost, and perish in the hurry of the world, or in the slough of indolence.

LEAVES are light, and useless, and idle, and wavering, and changeable, and even dance; yet God has made them part of the oak; in so doing He has given us a lesson not to deny the stoutheartedness within because we see the lightness without.

Horsford's Acid Phosphate.

Valuable in Indigestion. DR. DANIEL T. NELSON, Chicago, says: "I find it a pleasant and valuable remedy in indigestion, particularly in overworked men."

ONENESS with God is the sole truth of humanity. Life parted from its causative, life would be no life; it would at best be but a barrack of corruption, an outpost of annihilation. In proportion at the union is incomplete, the derived life is imperfect.—George Macdonald.

It is a great misfortune to have a fretful disposition. It takes the fragrance out of one's life, and leaves only weeds where a cheerful disposition would cause flowers to bloom. The habit of fretting is one that grows rapidly unless it be sternly repressed, and the best way to overcome it is to try always to look on the cheerful side of things.

CONSUMPTION CURED.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma and all throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellow-man suffering. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. A. NOYES, 149 Power's Block, Rochester, N.Y.

You picture to yourself the beauty of bravery and steadfastness. You let your imagination wander in delight over the memory of martyrs who have died for truth. And, then, some little, wretched, disagreeable duty comes, which is your martyrdom, the lamp for your oil; and if you will not do it, unilluminated your sentiment about the martyrs runs out over your self-indulgent life.—Phillips Brooks.
