

LIST of all Treaties of Commerce and Navigation between Great Britain and Foreign Powers which are now in force, stating the date of each and the period when terminable; whether or not they provide "most-favored nation" treatment, and the terms by which such treatment is stipulated for, and how far they apply to British Colonies.

ARGENTINE CON-FEDERATION.

Feb. 2, 1825.

Commerce and Navigation.

WHEN TERMINABLE.

No time fixed.

MOST-FAVORED-NATION TREATMENT.

Imports and Exports. Produce and Manufactures.

No higher or other duties shall be imposed on the importation into the territories of His Britannic Majesty of any articles of the growth, produce or manufacture of the United Provinces of Rio de la Plata; and no higher or other duties shall be imposed on the importation into the said United Provinces of any articles of the growth, produce or manufacture of any other foreign country; nor shall any other or higher duties or charges be imposed in the territories or dominions of either of the contracting parties on the exportation of any articles to the territories or dominions of the other, than such as are or may be payable on the exportation of the like articles to any other foreign country; nor shall any prohibition be imposed upon the exportation or importation of any articles of the growth, produce or manufacture of His Britannic Majesty's dominions, or of the said United Provinces, which shall not equally extend to all other nations. (Article IV.)

*Lading and Unlading of Ships. Safety of Merchandize, &c.
Disposal of Property, &c. Justice. Imports.*

In whatever relates to the lading and unlading of ships, the safety of merchandise, goods and effects, the disposal of property of every sort and denomination, by sale, donation or exchange, or in any other manner whatsoever, as also the administration of justice, the subjects and citizens of the two contracting parties shall enjoy, in their respective dominions, the same privileges, liberties and rights as the most favored nation, and shall not be charged, in any of these respects, with any higher duties or imposts than those which are paid, or may be paid, by the native subjects or citizens of the Power in whose dominions they may be resident. (Article IX.)

APPLICABLE TO BRITISH COLONIES.

Subjects. Commerce and Navigation.

His Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland engages, further, that in all his dominions situated out of Europe, the inhabitants of the United Provinces of Rio de la Plata shall have the like liberty of commerce and navigation stipulated for in the preceding Article, to the full extent in which the same is permitted at present, or shall be permitted hereafter to any other nation. (Article III.)

Import Duties, &c.

Applicable to "British territories and dominions." (Article IV.)
