

Fines how recovered.

LVIII. And be it enacted, That all fines and forfeitures imposed by any By-Law to be made in pursuance thereof, (of which By-Law, when produced, all Justices are hereby required to take notice,) the levying and recovering of which fines and forfeitures are not particularly here in directed, shall, upon proof of the offence before any one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace for the District, either by confession of the party or parties, or by the oath or affirmation of any one credible witness (which oath or affirmation such Justice or Justices are hereby empowered and required to administer without fee or reward) be levied by distress and sale of the offender's goods and chattels, by warrant under the hand and seal, or hands and seals, of such Justice or Justices; and all such fines, forfeitures or penalties by this act imposed or authorized to be imposed, the application whereof is not hereinbefore particularly directed shall be paid into the hands of the Treasurer or Receiver of the moneys to be raised by virtue of this act, and shall be applied and disposed of for the use of the said Railroad or undertaking; and the overplus of the moneys raised by such distress and sale, after deducting the penalty and the expenses of the levying and recovering thereof, shall be rendered to the owner of the goods and chattels so distrained and sold; and for want of sufficient goods and chattels whereon to levy the said penalty and expenses, the offender shall be sent to the common gaol for the District of Quebec, Montreal, Three Rivers or St. Francis, there to remain without bail or mainprize for such term not exceeding one month as such Justice or Justices shall think proper; unless such penalty or forfeiture, and all expenses attending the same shall be sooner paid and satisfied.

Appeal to Quarter Sessions by parties aggrieved.

LIX. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons shall think himself, herself, or themselves aggrieved by anything done by any Justice or Justices of the Peace in pursuance of this act, every such person or persons may, within four calendar months after the doing thereof, appeal to the Justices of the Peace at the General Quarter or General Sessions, to be holden in and for the District.

Limitation of actions under this Act.

LX. And be it enacted, That if any action or suit shall be brought or commenced against any person or persons for anything done or to be done in pursuance of this act, or in the execution of the powers and authorities, or the orders and directions hereinbefore given, or granted, every such action or suit shall be brought or commenced within six calendar months next after the fact committed; or in case there shall be a continuation of damage, then within six calendar months next after the doing or committing such damage shall cease, and not afterwards; and the Defendant or Defendants in such action or suit shall
